Miniatures From The East:

American Portrait Miniatures in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Carrie Rebora Barratt, Lori Zabar, 2010      The Routledge Handbook of the Mongols and Central-Eastern Europe Alexander V. Maiorov, Roman Hautala, 2021-08-25 The Routledge Handbook of the Mongols and Central Eastern Europe offers a comprehensive overview of the Mongols military political socio economic and cultural relations with Central and Eastern European nations between the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries The Mongol Empire was the largest contiguous land empire in history and one which contributed to the establishment of political commercial and cultural contacts between all Eurasian regions The Golden Horde founded in Eastern Europe by Chinggis Khan s grandson Batu in the thirteenth century was the dominant power in the region For two hundred years all of the countries and peoples of Central and Eastern Europe had to reckon with a powerful centralized state with enormous military potential Some chose to submit to the Mongols whilst others defended their independence but none could avoid the influence of this powerful empire In this book twenty five chapters examine this crucial period in Central Eastern European history including trade confrontation and cultural and religious exchange between the Mongols and their neighbours This book will be an essential reference for scholars and students of the Mongols as well those interested in the political social and economic history of medieval Central Eastern Europe      The Reuse of Tombs in Eastern Arabia Stephanie Döpper, 2023-10-26 This book investigate reuse of tombs in Eastern Arabia from the beginning of the Early Bronze Age until the end of the Sasanian period in order to understand the underlying purposes and social context of this practice      Miniatures Dudley Heath, 1905      Brooklyn Botanic Garden Gardener's Desk Reference Janet Marinelli, 2016-06-28 The ultimate gardening reference work compiled by two dozen of the world s leading plant experts under the auspices of one of the world s greatest botanical gardens Brooklyn Botanic Garden Gardener s Desk Reference is a milestone in garden publishing the kind of groundbreaking work that appears once in a lifetime No gardening reference ever has combined this scope of information in a single volume The coverage in most gardening reference books falls into a few standard horticultural categories The Gardener s Desk Reference unlocks the door to a vast assortment of plant knowledge from around the world There is enough information in this single volume to serve any plant enthusiast beginning and professional alike over a lifetime For easy use the wide ranging material is divided into twenty different sections such as Botany for Gardeners Kitchen Gardening The Horticultural Traveler Weights Measures and Conversions The hundreds of indispensable sidebars graphs tables plant lists maps and illustrations found throughout the reference make it even more accessible and attractive To do justice to the continent s breathtaking diversity of climates and plant communities all plant lists are organized by region and every recommended species or cultivar has been chosen by an experienced landscaper tested by years of gardening in the area Never before have gardeners had access to the breadth and quality of information in this authoritative reference      British Representations of the Middle East in the Exhibition Space, 1850-1932 Holly O'Farrell, 2023-11-10 This volume analyses British exhibitions of Middle Eastern particularly ancient Egyptian and Persian artefacts during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries examining how these exhibitions defined British self image in response to the Middle Eastern other This study is an original interpretation of the exhibition space along intersectional constructionist lines revealing how forces such as gender race morality and space come together to provide an argument for British supremacy The position of museums as instruments of representation of display made them important points of contact between the British national imperialist scheme and the public Displays in the British Museum Victoria and Albert Museum and Burlington House provide a focus for analysis Through the employment of a constructionist lens the research outlines a complex relationship between British society and the Middle Eastern artefacts presented in museums during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This allows a dialogue to emerge which has consequences for both societies which is achieved through intersections of gender race and morality in space This book will be of value to students and scholars alike interested in museology cultural studies history and art history

sources together into traditional narrative history only to do it better But topics such as architecture or coins are optional extras and not much integrated into the whole picture A thorough analysis of political and military developments is indeed the essential groundwork of most medieval history But high politics was not the whole of life and charters and texts are not the only witnesses to that life Social and economic life has its own momentum and its own continuity Its moral and spiritual aspects deserve historical study and impose new historical disciplines Crusades studies have become more interdisciplinary and less monolithic That new style of enquiry is fully reflected in the range and variety of the papers tightly focussed on Antioch printed in this volume      Index of Patents Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1993
