Minimal Politics Performativity And Minimalism In Recent American Art:

Minimal Politics Maurice Berger, 1997 This book traces the evolution of the style and thinking of Hans Haacke Mary Kelly Robert Morris Adrian Piper and Yvonne Rainer five artists who explore the complex relationship between form theatricality and ideology Minimal Politics demonstrates how their work evolved from a more minimal formal aesthetic in the 1960s to a more overtly ideological perspective

Performance Art RoseLee Goldberg, 2025-09-23 An updated edition of the pioneering study in the acclaimed World of Art series this classic book surveys a full century of performance art from the Futurist manifesto of 1909 through the second decade of the new millennium The standard reference since its first publication in 1979 Performance Art continues its authoritative chronicling of one of the most important art forms to emerge in modern times Art historian and curator RoseLee Goldberg has updated her magnum opus to reflect the current state of performance in an age where digital and web technologies are becoming increasingly dominant as she shows how a medium once used in sporadic bursts of artistic dissent has become a worldwide phenomenon Performance is now the medium of choice for many creatives entering the global conversation of art and culture As the medium has developed across Asia Africa Europe and the Americas it has become one of the most popular art forms for articulating difference whether dealing with issues of identity politics race or historical background Marina Abramovic Matthew Barney Sanford Biggers Tania Bruguera Patty Chang Rashid Johnson Autumn Knight Pierre Huyghe and Jacolby Satterwhite are among the many new and established artists whose work can now be seen in the context of other innovators in the field from the Futurists and Dadaists to Yves Klein and Laurie Anderson Goldberg explores contemporary artists approaches to politics tradition social engagement and the art world itself while evaluating the changing status of performance This revised edition includes an updated foreword an expanded reading list and a new chapter outlining developments in the second decade of the twenty first century in the fields of dance architecture technology and virtual performance

Embodied Avatars Uri McMillan, 2015-11-04 Tracing a dynamic genealogy of performance from the nineteenth century to the twenty first McMillan contends that black women artists practiced a purposeful self objectification transforming themselves into art objects In doing so these artists raised new ways to ponder the intersections of art performance and black female embodiment Back cover

Choreography, Visual Art and Experimental Composition 1950s-1970s Erin Brannigan, 2022-03-29 Winner of the 2023 Selma Jeanne Cohen Prize in Dance Aesthetics The American Society for Aesthetics This book traces the history of engagements between dance and the visual arts in the mid twentieth century and provides a backdrop for the emerging field of contemporary intermedial art practice Exploring the disciplinary identity of dance in dialogue with the visual arts this book unpacks how compositional methods that were dance based informed visual art contexts The book provokes fresh consideration of the entangled relationship between and historiographic significance of visual arts and dance by exploring movements in history that dance has been traditionally mapped to Neo Avant Garde Neo Dada Conceptual art Postmodernism and Performance Art and the specific practices and innovations from key people in the field like John Cage Anna Halprin and Robert Rauschenberg This book also employs a series of historical and critical case studies which show how compositional approaches from dance breath weight tone energy informed the emergence of the intermedial Ultimately this book shows how dance and choreography have played an important role in shaping visual arts culture and enables the re imagination of current art practices through the use of choreographic tools This unique and timely offering is important reading for those studying and researching in visual and fine arts performance history and theory dance practice and dance studies as well as those working within the fields of dance and visual art Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

Oscar Brown Jr to the stage Black Patience illuminates how Black artists and activists of the Civil Rights era used theater to expose critique and repurpose structures of white supremacy In this bold rethinking of the Civil Rights Movement Fleming contends that Black theatrical performance was a vital technology of civil rights activism and a crucial site of Black artistic and cultural production

Vidding Francesca Coppa,2022-02-23 Vidding is a well established remix practice where fans edit an existing film music video TV show or other performance and set it to music of their choosing Vids emerged forty years ago as a complicated technological feat involving capturing footage from TV with a VCR and syncing with music and their makers and consumers were almost exclusively women many of them queer women The technological challenges of doing this kind of work in the 1970s and 1980s when vidding began gave rise to a rich culture of collective work as well as conventions of creators who gathered to share new work and new techniques While the rise of personal digital technology eventually democratized the tools vidders use the collective aspect of the culture grew even stronger with the advent of YouTube Vimeo and other channels for sharing work Vidding A History emphasizes vidding as a critical feminist form of fan practice Working outward from interviews VHS liner notes convention programs and mailing list archives Coppa offers a rich history of vidding communities as they evolved from the 1970s through to the present Built with the classroom in mind the open access electronic version of this book includes over one hundred vids and an appendix that includes additional close readings of vids

Art/Work Julia Quinn Bryan-Wilson, 2004 Andrea Robbins and Max Becher Maurice Berger, 2008 This exhibition and catalog present the first examination of the portrait photographs of Andrea Robbins and Max Becher The artists portraits like their radical landscapes and city scenes are powerfully evocative boldly subverting our expectations of the discipline of portraiture Rather than capturing the visual essence of a sitter they reveal identity to be multifarious transitive and culturally and historically bound Robbins and Becher capture their subjects in ways that transform enhance and accentuate social and cultural meaning They do so with the full complicity and respect of the people they photograph They spend weeks living with each community they document They immerse themselves in the stories of its citizens and history They interview its residents and participate in their rituals and customs They photograph them in various active stages of work play and home life Most important they allow their subjects to represent themselves not only as they would like to be seen but also in ways that illuminate the complexity of their humanity By seeing identity as volatile mutable and contingent these improbable portraits remind us that who we are is as much a matter of choice as destiny BOOK JACKET Visual Culture and Bioscience Suzanne Anker, J.
