Contemporary Approaches to Commemorative Public Art Brenda Schmahmann, 2025-06-12 In this collection a diverse range of international contributors examine commemorative monuments from the late twentieth and twenty first centuries The book reveals how those monuments enable new perspectives and understanding of histories as well as a heightened involvement of viewers through not simply their subject matter but also most crucially their actual form and design While some contributors explore new approaches to the art of commemoration that artists and designers have deployed in recent monuments others examine how artists have undertaken creative engagements with historical statuary and sites using these interventions to offer critique and commentary Additionally the contributions consider the impact of political change on ways in which an inherited commemorative landscape is interpreted and negotiated Questions considered by the contributions include How might new monuments be shaped and how might they function differently from those of the past Is there a place for portraiture in the contemporary commemorative landscape Should commemorative monuments be envisaged as permanent fixtures or are temporary approaches more viable How effectively have artists disrupted the meanings of historical monuments and sites through installation performance video and other media How has political change played out at historical sites affecting how commemorative monuments from prior dispensations are understood in the 2020s This collection will be of value to researchers in Art History Visual Studies and Heritage Studies as well as scholars in all disciplines and fields who are interested in public art public memory and the politics of commemoration Art vs. TV Francesco Spampinato, 2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange Cabinet, 2007 Serialize Robert Klanten, Michael Mischler, Boris Brunnjak, 2006 Examines how designers approach the creation of a range of designs with a recognisable and continual element Frieze, 2006 Proxemics Liam Gillick, 2006 Critical essays by Liam Gillick most of which were originally printed in art magazines or exhibition catalogues Known for his ingenious reinterpretation of Conceptual and Minimalist art Liam Gillick has often used language whether in type on a wall or on a page as a site of artistic theoretical and political intervention He was active in the largely European 1990s art scene that included Philippe Parreno Pierre Huyghe Carsten Holler Angela Bulloch Douglas Gordon and Rirkrit Tiravanija The book also examines the recently renewed interest in Felix Gonzalez Torres John Baldessari and Allen Ruppersberg Interviews, Conversations, and Chit-chat, 1986-2004 Mike Kelley, 2005 This publication reunites Mike Kelley's major interviews with artists and cultural figures such as AA Bronson Larry Clark Kim Gordon Thurston Moore Jutta Koether Harmony Korine Tony Oursler Richard Prince Jim Shaw Michael Smith Jeffrey Sconce and John Waters outlining in the same manner as his critical essays an artistic genealogy that draws its references from American popular culture scientific and historical research and the inhibitions of Western society Publisher description The Undiscovered Country Russell Ferguson, Hammer Museum, 2004 In Maggie Stiefvater's SHIVER Grace and Sam found each other In LINGER they fought to be together Now in FOREVER the stakes are even higher than before Wolves are being hunted Lives are being threatened And love is harder and harder to hold on to as
