Ministry On The Fireline A Practical Theology For An Empowered Church:

Ministry on the Fireline Ray S. Anderson, 2011-07-12 The best theory for fighting fires comes from actually engaging in the battle against the flames Ray Anderson writes For the thousands of pastors and church leaders who are on the firelines of God's mission in the world we need a theology that sings even as it stings igniting the mind and stirring the heart In these pages then Anderson passionately sets forth a vision of the church's work and mission based on its birthday Pentecost At Pentecost Christians were given the Holy Spirit in order to understand the incarnation and come alive to God So this key event directs and empowers the church in its service to the world In the light of Pentecost we learn that we can come to know God only in praxis truth discovered through action In the process of elucidating this praxis Anderson seeks to construct a theology that not only truly respects and aids ministers on the firelines but will also heal the breach between Pentecostal and mainline church theology

The Shape of Practical Theology Ray S. Anderson, 2025-08-14 Too often in the life of the church theological reflection and the practical matters of leading and serving have been considered independently The result has been the impoverishment of both Christian faith and Christian practice In this groundbreaking book Ray Anderson reflects theologically and practically on preaching worship ethics social justice therapy family homosexuality burnout in ministry reconciliation in relationships and theological education itself The result is The Shape of Practical Theology a new and renewing foundation for engaging in Christian ministry Anderson lays out his threefold goal as follows to define more clearly the shape of practical theology as truly a theological enterprise rather than mere mastery of skills and methods to demonstrate the praxis of practical theology as critical engagement with the interface between the word of God as revealed through Scripture and the work of God taking place in and through the church in the world to deal with practical pastoral theology from the perspective of those who are on the field of play of life and ministry where preaching counseling and teaching does affect for many persons the outcome of the game Illuminated by stimulating discussion and helpful case studies The Shape of Practical Theology is aimed at seminary students at Christian educators and at working pastors and counselors Anderson's work fascinating and fruitful brings together the Word of God with the Spirit of God in the ever changing context of real life ministry Reading Ray S. Anderson Christian D. Kettler,2010-09-01 Why is theology often divorced from ministry Why is ministry left bereft of a robust theology Ray S Anderson a professor at Fuller Theological Seminary for over thirty years has left a legacy of provocative reflections on these questions In this book Christian Kettler provides a sure guide to major themes in the work of one of the most creative theological minds to have sought to integrate theology and ministry Early experience on a South Dakota farm and in a California parish helped form the theologian whose radical incarnational theology of the kenotic community provided a new basis for a broader risk taking ecclesiology Anderson also brought theological anthropology to the front of the agenda and therefore into ministry to actual hurting human persons His challenging theological reflections can provoke the mind stir the heart and guide compassionate and wise incarnational ministry Each chapter ends with a case study from an actual life situation to test out and work through the implications of Anderson s theology The Trinity, Creation and Pastoral Ministry Graham Buxton,2007-01-01 In this book the author proposes a three way conversation between theology science and pastoral ministry His approach draws on a Trinitarian understanding of God as a relational being of love whose life spills over into all created reality human and nonhuman By locating human meaning and purpose within God s creation community this book offers the possibility of a transforming engagement between those in pastoral ministry and the scientific community

The Soul of Ministry Ray S. Anderson,1997-01-01 Ray Anderson offers an inspiring call for Christian leaders to view Jesus as a model for their own ministry today The Soul of Ministry explores the idea of ministry across denominations and discovers its soul in God s love for the world Designed for pastors of all denominations this book combines social biblical theology with numerous real life anecdotes from Anderson s teaching and ministry Ecclesial Leadership as Friendship Chloe Lynch,2019-03-01 When it comes to talking about the activity of directing the church the language of leadership and leaders is increasingly popular Yet what is leadership and how might theological narratives better resource the discourse and practice of leadership in ecclesial contexts In identifying and critiquing managerialism as a dominant narrative of leadership in the Western church this book calls for an alternative approach founded on the concept of friendship Engaging with the wider field of leadership studies the book establishes an understanding of leadership activity and brings it into conversation with an incarnational ecclesiology The result is a prophetic reimagining of ecclesial leadership in terms of a relational kenotic praxis This praxis of mutuality and love is framed here in the rich language of Christian friendship The book also wrestles deeply with the embodiment of such a praxis making explicit the power behaviours typical of friendship leadership and offering constructive guidance for practitioners in the task of implementation within a complex and fractured world This book offers a new vision of the centrality of friendship to leadership of a healthy church community As such it will be of great use to scholars of practical theology ecclesiology and leadership as well as practitioners in church ministry The Mestizo/a Community of the Spirit Oscar Garcia-Johnson,2009-01-01 This work models a creative exercise in ecclesiology based on a

Latino a practical theology of the Spirit which designs theological discourse based on its encounter with the Spirit in human culture Hence it is a theology appreciative of and attentive to the multiple matrices and intersections of the Spirit with cultures Garcia Johnson offeres an appreciative and critical analysis of the uses of culture among Latino a theologians followed by the proposal for a postmodern Spirit friendly cultural paradigm based on the narratives of the cross and the Pentecost He develops a practical theology for a Latino a postmodern ecclesiology based on three native Latino a theological concepts mestizaje accompaniment and manana eschatology The resulting ecclesial construct The Mestizo a Community of Manana reflects a transforming manana vision and models the visible cruciform community in which the transforming praxis and historical transcendence of the Christ Spirit works from within The work sets forth practical guidelines for implementation of the ecclesial construct in the urban context of devastated communities and offers suggestions for further development in Latino a theology

Christopraxis Andrew Root,2014 Since the late 1970 s practical theology has had a significant voice and influence in the academy While many have seen great hope and potential in this work not everyone has agreed Some for instance have examined the conversation and found by focusing on the concrete and lived experiences of humanity by and large practical theology has not had the theological vision to present frameworks for understanding concrete and lived experience with divine action So argues Andrew Root who in Christopraxis seeks to reset the entire edifice of practical theology on a new foundation While not minimizing practical theology s commitment to the lived and concrete Root argues that practical theology has neglected deeper theological underpinnings and seeks to create a practical theology that seeks to be fully post postmodern post Aristotelian and that in seeking to attend to doctrines such as divine action and justification is properly and fully theological

Speaking in Tongues Timothy Laurito,2021-10-26 Speaking in Tongues explores the phenomenon from a multidisciplinary approach Uncover how speaking in tongues can be logically defended from various fields of study and be proven to be an essential spiritual practice for Christians today Through this unique Spirit inspired act practitioners are offered a powerful mode of communication with God that is transformational Discover the answer to questions like these Does a Lukan theology of speaking in tongues support an initial physical evidence position What are the Pauline frameworks for how speaking in tongues should operate in the church How does speaking in tongues practically benefit the practitioner Can speaking in tongues stand up against psychological sociological and linguistic scrutiny Did speaking in tongues cease from church history Take a deep dive into the phenomenon of speaking in tongues to learn how a multidisciplinary perspective can empower the practitioner to understand and defend this distinctive practice in fresh ways

Face to Face Marty Folsom,2016-08-31 Like falling in love this book argues that a relationship with God begins with surprise proceeds with discovery and shapes a life that comes to share a story of love This book does not describe God but pursues the nature of personally relating with the triune God Consequently it also engages how we relate with humans made in God s image We finish the Face to Face series with this most mysterious and fulfilling encounter a personal engagement with the Relational God known as a community of persons who invite us to share in their life Who is Present in Absence? Pamela F. Engelbert, 2019-01-16 What transpires when Classical Pentecostals pray for God to intervene within their suffering but God does not Traditionally Classical Pentecostals center on encountering God as demonstrated through the relating of testimonies of their experiences with God In seeking to contribute to a theology of suffering for Pentecostals Pam Engelbert lifts up the stories of eight Classical Pentecostals to discover how they experienced God and others amidst their extended suffering even when God did not intervene as they had prayed By valuing each story this qualitative practical theology work embraces a Pentecostal hermeneutic of experience combined with Scripture namely the Gospel of John As a Pentecostal practical theological project it offers a praxis theology of action of suffering and healing during times when we experience the apparent absence of God It invites the reader to enter into the space of the other s suffering by way of empathy and thereby participate in God s act of ministry to humanity through God s expression of empathy in the very person of Jesus Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison, 2016-05-20 For many congregations change creates discomfort Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise experience and ability That expectation a product of modern approaches to leadership views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ s preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God s missional promptings as they move forward into God s future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation On Being Christian and Human Todd H. Speidell, 2002-04-17 In the tradition of Karl Barth T F and J B Torrance and Ray Anderson this collection of essays articulates a theology of ministry based on the humanity of Christ A Christian theology of ministry it insists can be nothing less than a theology for humanity It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian Tod E. Bolsinger, 2004-04 Rediscover the triune nature of God to reawaken and nourish a communal spirit in our individualist times The Promise of Trinitarian Theology Elmer M. Colyer, 2001-12-06 Thomas F Torrance is considered by many to be the most outstanding living Reformed theologian in the Anglo Saxon world In The Promise of Trinitarian Theology Elmer M Colyer presents a collection of essays critiquing Torrance s work It explores his place in Reformed theology and his relation to the Greek fathers Both everyday life and scientific understanding are discussed in the essays within The Promise of Trinitarian Theology is a hopeful step engaging the works of T F Torrance and the theology behind his words The Spirit of Truth Myk Habets, 2010-03-01 Among the theological loci pneumatology is one of the most stimulating exciting and difficult topics to study it is also one of the most rewarding The identity and mission of the Holy Spirit is pervasive throughout Scripture and the Great Tradition and within contemporary Christianity it is one of the most popular topics currently being explored Here ten scholars present twelve essays spanning biblical hermeneutical theological and practical disciplines The result is not an evangelical pneumatology in systematic fashion nor is it a comprehensive theology of the Holy Spirit Rather this volume presents explorations in pneumatology from a variety of evangelical scholars working in varying contexts mostly the South Pacific basin but each wrestling equally with what the Spirit of Truth is saying to the churches today This is a work of outstanding scholarship with essays by Canadian theologian Gary Badcock and a cast of established and emerging Kiwi or New Zealand theologians which gives the work a unique contextual flavor alongside its ecumenical and evangelical commitment The Anointed Son Myk Habets,2010-01-01

Spirit Christology complements Logos Christology in the same way in which Christ and the Spirit are mutually constitutive Or at least this should be the case The history of Christian thought shows that Logos Christology has dominated resulting in both an eclipse of Trinitarian doctrine and a diminution of pneumatology Recently there have been calls to reclaim a theology of the Third Article in order to present a Trinitarian theology that is faithful to Scripture the Great Tradition and one that is existentially viable While studies examine various aspects of Spirit Christology there has yet to appear a work that introduces the doctrine examines the various mutually exclusive proposals and offers a constructive trinitarian proposal The present work does just this introducing the constituent features of a Spirit Christology that is Trinitarian orthodox and contemporary The current work proposes a model of Spirit Christology that complements rather than replaces Logos Christology and does so in a robustly Trinitarian framework Within contemporary theology a pneumatically oriented approach to Christology is being advanced across denominational and traditional lines Those wanting to navigate their way through the many competing proposals for a Third Article theology will find a comprehensive map here American Theological Inquiry, Volume One, Issue Two Gannon Murphy,2008-07-20 American Theological Inquiry ATI was formed in 2007 by Drs S Gannon Murphy PhD St David s College Univ Wales Theology Presbyterian Reformed and Stephen Patrick PhD Univ Illinois Philosophy Eastern Orthodox to open up space for diverse Christian academicians who affirm the Ecumenical Creeds to share research throughout the broader Christian scholarly community in America ATI reaches thousands of Christian scholars throughout the United States particularly specialists in theology Though ATI is a new journal scholars who publish with ATI benefit from exposure to a vast non insular network of one of the broadest Christian academic communities possible

Baptism, Superstitions, and the Supernatural Lesley George Anderson,2022-07-07 Baptism Superstitions and the Supernatural by Rev Dr Lesley G Anderson is a book uniquely and unquestionably one of the most informative and remarkable of its type The sacrament of baptism is undoubtedly to this day an exceedingly controversial sacrament of the Christian Church The continuing differing debates arguments and views about adult believers versus infant baptism are examined Superstitions and the supernatural associated with this sacrament are given adequate attention in addition to the many other informative factors relating to this sacrament Further this sacrament is examined as a scriptural psychological theological and social reality The introduction of baptism as a liturgical phenomenon highlights the educational quality of this book as it takes the reader into the interesting and fascinating areas of baptism of blood baptism by fire baptism of the dead baptism of the Holy Spirit and baptism in the name of Jesus only In addition this book brings to the fore an intrinsic excitement and understanding about the symbols and symbolisms images and mysteries signs and wonders associated with this sacrament The role of the Holy Spirit and the centrality of Jesus in the baptismal act are of importance recognized If symbolically baptism means dying to sin and rising to new life with Christ does this apply only to adult believers This book explores the question against the background of research conducted in the Central American country of Belize that unearthed the views and beliefs of laypersons The reach of the work extends beyond Belize and Methodist traditions are compared with contrasting beliefs and practices of other denominations Popular superstitions associated with baptism are also explored as well as the impact of African cultural practices on Christian theology in the lived experience of Caribbean peoples Although this research was conducted in Belize it is borderless and boundless Of vital interest is the exploration of this sacrament in African religious beliefs and cultural practices According to Professor Neville Duncan former director of the Sir Arthur Lewis Institute of Social and Economic Studies at the University of the West Indies Mona Jamaica the book is theologically and sociologically stimulating while written from the Methodist perspective the issues raised will resonate with all Christian denominations All denominations noted in this book are given their due respect regardless of their beliefs and or baptismal practices
