Keep Looking Up! Leland Maples, 2015-11-10 When I walked into the Big Spring Federal Prison Camp over thirty years ago I had no idea that God was going to change everything about my life I had no burden for inmates I was only going to teach a Bible class in prison because I could not get out of it For six years I drove 120 miles round trip every Friday night for that class The last two years of the six we drove back over on Saturday afternoon after visitation to work with the families It was during this time that the prison system began to expand at a rapid pace When we started into the prison in Big Spring it was the only prison west of Fort Worth in the entire state now we have about forty Men with vision like Don Gibson and Emmett Solomon were busy putting people and programs in place to meet the spiritual need of the largest prison system in the free world

Streetwise Prison Ministry Rebecca Lewis, 2024-04-11 Every year thousands of religious individuals and groups of all faiths volunteer to enter into jails and prisons to bring hope to the incarcerated But while their intention is honorable many of these volunteers run into the reality of a highly dysfunctional complicated and often volatile environment hostile by its nature to those efforts Jail and prison ministry is not just about bringing the gospel of deliverance to the inmates through religious programming and spiritual counseling Wise ministry comes from knowing the dynamics of the mission field which is often filled with the condensed darkness of human suffering and evil and many wolf traps Effective jail and prison ministry requires the religious volunteer to have an awareness of the inner nuances of that environment A study of inmate religious games security issues that affect civilians entering to minister as well as their own personal perceptions of ministry in a secular environment is part of being fully equipped for that mission Jail and prison ministry is not for the naive in matters that may sabotage or weaken the intended purpose of those religious volunteers who seek to bring the hope of the gospel into the dark places that are our jails and prisons
