Ministry Or Apostolate What Should The Catholic Laity Be Doing:

Ministry Or Apostolate? Russell Shaw, 2002 Makes the distinction between lay ministry service roles in parishes and programs of the Church and lay apostolate carrying Gospel values out into the world Gives a surprising and provocative answer to the question it asks Encourages men and women of the laity as defined by Vatican Council II To make the Church present and fruitful in those places and circumstances where it is only through them that she can become the salt of the earth

Catholic Social Teaching Gerard V. Bradley, E. Christian Brugger, 2019-08 Few treatments of Catholic Social Teaching are as comprehensive as this and none is nearly so devoted to a critical scholarly presentation and analysis of the whole corpus

Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Cajetan E. Ebuziem, 2011 Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Towards an Emerging Model and Method for the Church in Africa arises out of reflection on experience and practice The volume reflects on the author's own cultural context religious heritage and pastoral functioning In addition it considers the author's personal experiences in relation to the common experiences of others within the author's cultural and religious traditions and places these experiences and the voices they represent into mutually critical correlation Thus commonalities and dissonances in them emerge leading to insights where to go from there in providing ministry to the People of God in the local church context and still within the framework of one universal church This book presents a contextual model of local theology that begins its reflection with the Igbo cultural context The Igbo or Nigerian or African Church can have a pattern of ministry with a model and a method that are consistent with the people's values To accomplish this goal a local cultural value must be explored and brought into the scene Since the Igbo society is the heart of Christianity and Catholicism in Africa the author relies on Igbo land as his situational context The exploration of the indigenous Igbo value of collaboration will be an advantage in ministering to the rest of the African people who have cultural resemblances to Igbos The African Church has to learn from the Igbo values of umunna bu ike Umunnais the basic Igbo unit and possibly the most powerful missionary force in Igboland and potentially an Igbo gift to the Church in Nigeria and Africa and even beyond Back cover Vatican II on Church-State Relations M. Y. Ciftci, 2024-04-17 Should religion and politics be kept apart What should be the relationship between the church and the state M Y Ciftci answers these questions by studying the most important event in the recent history of the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council 1962-65 The book provides a new interpretation of the Council's teaching on church state relations to better appreciate its flaws and need for reform By paying attention to the often overlooked importance given by the Council to the lay apostolate it reveals how the Council did not reform as is often thought but retained a flawed conception of the laity's role in politics It then proposes a new framework for understanding church state relations using the ressourcement method of returning to scripture and tradition and by a critical dialogue with Oliver O'Donovan and various Protestant biblical scholars of the Powers in the New Testament Ciftci shows how fruitful an self consciously ecumenical approach can be for political theology As most ressourcement theologians have overlooked political issues and since ecumenical theology rarely touches on issues of church state relations this work makes an original contribution to the ressourcement project and to ecumenism Ministries and functions the lay faithful can exercise in the Catholic church Ignatius Ayivor, 2017-11-29 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2010 in the subject Theology Practical Theology grade 1-5 language English abstract In the early Church the question of who was a lay person or who was not a cleric was not much of a concern since the Church acted as one body Any action taken by the part of the Church members involved the action of the whole Church However this does not mean that in the nascent Church all the members formed a kind of amorphous body in which there were no distinctions Since the genesis of the Church there has been a distinction among her members There are two different categories of Christ's faithful There are the clerics and the lay faithful The clerics are the ordained members and the lay faithful are the non ordained members The two groups are not regarded as different ontologically One group is not more important or more a member of the Church than the other Both categories have rights and obligations in the Church All who are baptized or are received into the Church are regarded as Christ's faithful The term Christ's faithful applies to all baptized Christians regardless of their state or rank in the Church As one is baptized or received into the Church he or she gains membership by the virtue of the baptism that is recognized as sacramental According to c 228 of the 1983 Code of Canon Law lay people who are qualified and suitable can be admitted to ecclesiastical offices and functions by the sacred pastors This paves a way for the active lay involvement in the life and work of the Church However there are limits to lay ministries These limits need to be observed so that there will be harmony and understanding among all those who are involved in ministries in the Church Observance and respect of the limits to one's ministry will remove the situations that can cause conflict between lay persons who are admitted to exercise offices and functions in the Church and the clergy Church and Society Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J.,2009-08-25 One of the leading theologians of our time Avery Cardinal Dulles S J has written and lectured on a wide range of topics across his distinguished career and for a wide range of audiences Integrating faith and scholarship he has created a rich body of work that in the words of one observer is both faithful to Catholic tradition and fresh in its engagement with the contemporary world Here brought together for the first time in one volume are the talks Cardinal Dulles has given twice each year since the Laurence J McGinley Lectures were initiated in 1988 conceived broadly as a forum on Church and society The result is a diverse collection that reflects the breadth of his thinking and engages with many of the most important and difficult religious issues of our day Organized chronologically the lectures are often responses to timely issues such as the relationship between religion and politics a topic he treated in the last weeks of the presidential campaign of 1992 Other lectures take up questions surrounding human rights faith and evolution forgiveness the death penalty the doctrine of religious freedom the population of hell and a whole array of theological subjects many of which intersect with culture and politics The life of the Church is a major and welcome focus of the lectures whether they be a reflection on Cardinal Newman or an exploration of the difficulties of interfaith dialogue Dulles responds frequently to initiatives of the Holy See discussing gender and priesthood in the context of church teaching and Pope Benedict s interpretation of Vatican II Writing with clarity and conviction Cardinal Dulles seeks to render the wisdom of past ages applicable to the world in which we live For those seeking to share in this wisdom this book will be a consistently rewarding guide to what it means to be Catholic indeed to be a person of any faith in a world of rapid relentless change Revitalizing Catholicism in America Russell Shaw,David Byers,2023-04-24 The Catholic Church in the United States has reached a tipping point The crisis is painfully visible in the sharp declines that have already taken place in many essential areas of Church life from Catholic marriages and infant baptisms to Sunday Mass attendance and the number of priests Meanwhile the number of semi active and inactive Catholics is rising and the number of ex Catholic nones is skyrocketing What happens in the immediate future will determine how the Church in America will emerge from this crisis a smaller but more committed body of faithful Christians or a stagnant inward looking remnant The American Catholic laity must decide whether they will be passive onlookers or will choose to act Revitalizing Catholicism in America provides nine practical action items every faithful Catholic can undertake nine steps which all together will form the building blocks of a renewed Catholic subculture No matter what your specific gift or walk of life you have a role to play in revitalizing Catholicism in America This book will show you how American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1917 'Put Right Something That's Wrong' Albert Nolan,2023-07-01 This volume consists of 2 never before published interviews with Nolan from the 1980s about his life and work and 2 articles on the the Kairos Document and kairos theology Faith Traditions and the Family Phyllis D. Airhart,Margaret Lamberts Bendroth,1996-01-01 This exploration offers readers fresh and broad ranges of ways to evaluate their own religious traditions when dealing with issues related to the future of the family London Quarterly Review ,1889 The Living Church ,1951 Selected Works of Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Joseph Bernardin,2000 Grassroots Ecumenism Dr. Karen Petersen Finch ,2022-09-09 The quest for Christian unity has traditionally been initiated at the international level between official leaders of Christian denominations with the effects of their dialogue expected to trickle down to local Christian communities In Grassroots Ecumenism Karen Petersen Finch upends this process proposing an approach to Christian unity that begins in your neighborhood Finch draws directly from her experience equipping everyday Christians to know their own Christian tradition more thoroughly and to engage thoughtfully with separated Christians down the street and around the corner The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1939 To Hunt, To Shoot, To Entertain Russell Shaw,2011-07-12 Why hasn t the Catholic Church been more successful up to now in realizing the Second Vatican Council s call for the evangelization of secular culture Why hasn t the Gospel been preached more forthrightly to the modern world The most important reason as well as the least recognized may be clericalism the attitude widely shared by Catholic laypeople as well as many priests that clerics make up the active elite corps in the Church and laypeople are the passive mass that clerics alone have intrinsic responsibility for the Church s mission while the apostolate of laypeople comes to them if they come at all only by delegation on the part of the clergy To Hunt To Shoot To Entertain probes the theological and historical roots of this clericalist mentality as it has affected the Catholic laity along with contemporary expressions of clericalism the over involvement of some clerics in secular politics the sometimes exaggerated emphasis given to lay ministers and certain aspects for the feminist movement in today s Catholicism This is not another revisionist attack on the priesthood not one more alienated voice from the pews Instead the book offers a prescription for authentic ecclesial renewal based on new healthier lay clergy relations in light of the teaching of Vatican II Pope John Paul II and other voices of the Magisterium It presents a positive vision of a Church in which laypeople and clergy regard one another with mutual respect as partners in her mission to the world with indispensable contemporary tasks arising from their own special vocations
