The Story of Minnesota Jerry Fearing, 1977 Text and pictures portray the history of Minnesota from the Ice Age to the present Minnesota William E. Lass, 1977 Minnesota in the Civil War Kenneth Carley, 2000 This book presents for the first time a comprehensive picture of Minnesota's contribution to the nation's epic struggle during the Civil War From diaries and letters journals and newspaper accounts the words of the men who fought convey the terror of battle the drudgery of marching the fear of death and the honor of camaraderie In addition to the extensive use of first hand accounts of the war this book contains many seldom seen contemporary photographs portraits and artifacts drawn from the Minnesota Historical Society's outstanding connections BOOK JACKET North Country Mary Lethert Wingerd, 2010-06-07 In 1862 four years after Minnesota was ratified as the thirty second state in the Union simmering tensions between indigenous Dakota and white settlers culminated in the violent six week long U S Dakota War Hundreds of lives were lost on both sides and the war ended with the execution of thirty eight Dakotas on December 26 1862 in Mankato Minnesota the largest mass execution in American history The following April after suffering a long internment at Fort Snelling the Dakota and Winnebago peoples were forcefully removed to South Dakota precipitating the near destruction of the area's native communities while simultaneously laying the foundation for what we know and recognize today as Minnesota In North Country The Making of Minnesota Mary Lethert Wingerd unlocks the complex origins of the state origins that have often been ignored in favor of legend and a far more benign narrative of immigration settlement and cultural exchange Moving from the earliest years of contact between Europeans and the indigenous peoples of the western Great Lakes region to the era of French and British influence during the fur trade and beyond Wingerd charts how for two centuries prior to official statehood Native people and Europeans in the region maintained a hesitant largely cobeneficial relationship Founded on intermarriage kinship and trade between the two parties this racially hybridized society was a meeting point for cultural and economic exchange until the western expansion of American capitalism and violation of treaties by the U S government during the 1850s wore sharply at this tremulous bond ultimately leading to what Wingerd calls Minnesota's Civil War A cornerstone text in the chronicle of Minnesota's history Wingerd's narrative is augmented by more than 170 illustrations chosen and described by Kirsten

Delegard in comprehensive captions that depict the fascinating often haunting representations of the region and its inhabitants over two and a half centuries North Country is the unflinching account of how the land the Dakota named Mini Sota Makoce became the State of Minnesota and of the people who have called it at one time or another home Historic Photos of Minnesota Susan Marks, 2009 Minnesota's past is defined by its remarkable natural resources and shaped by its native peoples and early settlers From the fur trade and the establishment of Fort Snelling to harnessing the power of the Mississippi River as a means to fuel emergent logging and milling industries Minnesota's history is that of a land like no other Pioneering Minnesotans embraced everything that the sprawling prairies rich farmlands and more than 10 000 lakes offered Boomtowns and small towns sprang up and were connected to the thriving metropolises of Minneapolis and St Paul through a great labyrinth of railways From the time photographers first started pointing their cameras in the direction of Minnesota's land and people crystallized moments from the state's history were captured and stories preserved The archival images collected in Historic Photos of Minnesota offer unique insights into the state's not so distant past Spanning more than 100 years this book documents everyday lives and significant events in Minnesota's extraordinary history History of Fillmore County, Minnesota, 1912
