Christoph Herzog, Richard Wittmann

Minorities In The Ottoman Empire A Reconsideration:

The Early Modern Ottomans Virginia H. Aksan, Daniel Goffman, 2007-07-26 Publisher description A Provincial History of the Ottoman Empire Marc Aymes, 2013-08-15 Provincializing the history of the Ottoman Empire this book provides a critical approach to the projects of modernity that took place in the Eastern Mediterranean over the past two centuries Leaving their mark on this period are the turmoil of insurgency in Greece and Egypt a growing intervention of European Powers in Eastern Mediterranean politics and the unfolding of large reform projects within the administration of the Ottoman Empire Whilst these developments have prompted enduring debates over Middle Eastern paths of transformation the case of Cyprus has remained isolated from these discussions something this book seeks to address One of the first research monographs to appear in English on Cyprus during the eventful times of the Ottoman long 19th century this book consistently seeks to provide a dialogue between source analyses and theoretical frameworks Exploring the myriad relationships between this singular locality and the regional not to say global dynamics of empire trade and social change at that time A Provincial History of the Ottoman Empire will be of interest to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East and Modern History The Arab Lands under Ottoman Rule Jane Hathaway, 2019-12-06 The Arab Lands under Ottoman Rule assesses the effects of Ottoman rule on the Arab Lands of Egypt Greater Syria Iraq and Yemen between 1516 and 1800 Drawing attention to the important history of these regions the book challenges outmoded perceptions of this period as a demoralizing prelude to the rise of Arab nationalism and Arab nation states in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries As well as exploring political events and developments it delves into the extensive social cultural and economic changes that helped to shape the foundations of today's modern Middle and Near East In doing so it provides a detailed view of society incorporating all socio economic classes as well as women religious minorities and slaves This second edition has been significantly revised and updated and reflects the developments in research and scholarship since the publication of the first edition Engaging with a wide range of primary sources and enhanced by a variety of maps and images to illustrate the text The Arab Lands under Ottoman Rule is a unique and essential resource for students of early modern Ottoman history and the early modern Middle East The Jews of Edirne Jacob Daniels, 2025-06-10 At the turn of the twentieth century the city of Edirne was a bustling center linking Istanbul to Ottoman Europe It was also the capital of Edirne Province among the most religiously diverse regions of the Ottoman Empire But by 1923 the city had become a Turkish border town and the province had lost much of its non Muslim population With this book Jacob Daniels explores how one of the world's largest Sephardi communities dealt with the encroachment of modern borders Using Ladino French English and Turkish sources Daniels offers a new take on the ways in which ethno religious minorities experienced the transition from empire to nation state Rather than tracing a linear path Edirne Jews zigzagged between the Ottoman Empire and three nation states without moving a mile And by maintaining interstate Sephardi networks they resisted pressure to treat the shifting border as a limit to their zone of belonging Ultimately proximity to the border would undo Edirne's Jewish community but the way this ending came about local Jews were rarely killed or deported challenges common assumptions about state borders and Jewish history By studying Jewish encounters with the nation state alongside the emergence of modern borders Daniels sheds light on both phenomena

The Construction of Minorities André Burguière, Raymond Grew, 2001 A cross cultural volume that investigates the question of how social minorities are formed

The Armenians and the Fall of the Ottoman Empire Ari Şekeryan, 2023-01-19 The Armistice of Mudros was signed on 30 October 1918 and on the morning of 13 November 1918 a mighty fleet of battleships from Britain France Italy and Greece sailed to Istanbul and dropped anchor without encountering resistance This day marked the beginning of the end of the Ottoman Empire a dissolution that would bring great suffering and chaos but also new opportunities for all Ottomans Muslim and non Muslim alike Drawing upon a previously untouched collection of Armenian and Ottoman Turkish primary sources Ari Şekeryan considers these understudied post war years Examining the Armenian community as they emerged from the aftermath of war and genocide Şekeryan outlines their shifting political position and the strategies they used to survive this turbulent period By focusing on the Ottoman Armistice 1918 1923 Şekeryan illuminates an oft neglected period in history and develops a new case study for understanding the political reactions of ethnic groups to the fall of empires and nation states

Istanbul - Kushta - Constantinople Christoph Herzog, Richard Wittmann, 2018-10-10 Istanbul Kushta Constantinople presents twelve studies that draw on contemporary life narratives that shed light on little explored aspects of nineteenth century Ottoman Istanbul As a broad category of personal writing that goes beyond the traditional confines of the autobiography life narratives range from memoirs letters reports travelogues and descriptions of daily life in the city and its different neighborhoods By focusing on individual experiences and perspectives life narratives allow the historian to transcend rigid political narratives and to recover lost voices especially of those underrepresented groups including women and members of non Muslim communities The studies of this volume focus on a variety of narratives produced by Muslim and Christian women by non Muslims and Muslims as well as by natives and outsiders alike They dispel European Orientalist stereotypes and cross class divides and ethnic identities Travel accounts of outsiders provide us with valuable observations of daily life in the city that residents often overlooked

Christians Under the Ottoman Turks Hélène Pignot, 2009 In the 17th century Britons left their country in vast numbers explorers diplomats ecclesiastics merchants or simply tourists Only the most intrepid ventured into the faraway lands of the Ottoman Empire Their travel narratives best sellers in their day provide an entertaining but also valuable testimony on the everyday life of Orthodox Christians and their coexistence with the Turks Greek Christians though living under the Ottoman yoke enjoyed greater religious freedom than many of their brothers in Christian Europe The travelers intellectual curiosity about Greece opened a window on the Orthodox Church and paved the way for future dialogue

for Outstanding Research This book documents the making of Romanian citizenship from 1750 to 1918 as a series of acts of national self determination by the Romanians as well as the emancipation of subordinated gender social and ethno religious groups It focuses on the progression of a sum of transnational questions that were at the heart of North Atlantic European and local politics during the long nineteenth century concerning the status of peasants women Greeks Jews Roma Armenians Muslims and Dobrudjans The analysis emphasizes the fusion between nationalism and liberalism and the emancipatory impact national liberalism had on the transition from the Old Regime to the modern order of the nation state While emphasizing liberalism s many achievements the study critically scrutinizes the liberal doctrine of legal political capacity and the dark side of nationalism marked by tendencies toward exclusion It highlights the challenges nascent liberal democracies face in the process of consolidation and the enduring appeal of illiberalism in periods of upheaval represented mainly by nativism The book s innovative interdisciplinary approach to citizenship in the Ottoman and post Ottoman Balkans and the richness of the sources employed appeal to a diverse readership

The Jews of the Ottoman Empire and the Turkish Republic Stanford J. Shaw, 2016-07-27 This book studies the role of the Ottoman Empire and Republic of Turkey in providing refuge and prosperity for Jews fleeing from persecution in Europe and Byzantium in medieval times and from Russian pogroms and the Nazi holocaust in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It studies the religiously based communities of Ottoman and Turkish Jews as well as their economic cultural and religious lives and their relations with the Muslims and Christians among whom they lived

Minorities in the Ottoman Empire Molly Greene, 2005

Justice Interrupted Elizabeth F. Thompson, 2013-04-15 The Arab Spring uprising of 2011 is portrayed as a dawn of democracy in the region But the revolutionaries were and saw themselves as heirs to a centuries long struggle for just government and the rule of law In Justice Interrupted we see the complex lineage of political idealism reform and violence that informs today s Middle East

America and the Armenian Genocide of 1915 Jay Winter, 2004-01-08 Before Rwanda and Bosnia and before the Holocaust the first genocide of the twentieth century happened in Turkish Armenia in 1915 when approximately one million people were killed This volume is an account of the American response to this atrocity The first part sets up the framework for understanding the genocide Sir Martin Gilbert Vahakn Dadrian and Jay Winter provide an analytical setting for nine scholarly essays examining how Americans learned of this catastrophe and how they tried to help its victims Knowledge and compassion though were not enough to stop the killings A terrible precedent was born in 1915 one which has come to haunt the United States and other Western countries throughout the twentieth century and beyond To read the essays in this volume is chastening the dilemmas Americans faced when confronting evil on an unprecedented scale are not very different from the dilemmas we face today

Mapping the Academic Debate Johannes Duschka, Christoph Kleine, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Florian Zemmin, 2024-12-16 This volume maps the international academic debate on secularity It places seminal contributions from within Western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into English The volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions The collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse When speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references
