Tracking Classical Monsters in Popular Culture Liz Gloyd, 2019-10-31 What is it about ancient monsters that popular culture still finds so enthralling Why do the monsters of antiquity continue to stride across the modern world In this book the first in depth study of how post classical societies use the creatures from ancient myth Liz Gloyd reveals the trends behind how we have used monsters since the 1950s to the present day and considers why they have remained such a powerful presence in our shared cultural imagination She presents a new model for interpreting the extraordinary vitality that classical monsters have shown and their enormous adaptability in finding places to dwell in popular culture without sacrificing their connection to the ancient world Her argument takes her readers through a comprehensive tour of monsters on film and television from the much loved creations of Ray Harryhausen in Clash of the Titans to the monster of the week in Hercules The Legendary Journeys before looking in detail at the afterlives of the Medusa and the Minotaur She develops a broad theory of the ancient monster and its life after antiquity investigating its relation to gender genre and space to offer a bold and novel exploration of what keeps drawing us back to these mythical beasts From the siren to the centaur all monster lovers will find something to enjoy in this stimulating and accessible book The Book Review Digest , 2003

Literary Activism Amit Chaudhuri, 2018-02-15 Literary Activism revisits and interrogates and looks to renew the force of the literary It s a movement that emerges from a radically altered landscape for both publishing and academia where what Amit Chaudhuri calls market activism has effected changes on language on the measuring of value on the concept of influence in ways we struggle to recognise Encompassing the perspectives of the writer critic translator academic and publisher the essays in this volume follow no single line of enquiry Rather they offer the beginnings of an analysis of the literary world at a certain moment of globalisation while also questioning whether a literary world exists and if it does where its boundaries lie The collection moves in many directions from Arun Kolatkar and his near heroic refusal of both marketplace and reputation to Derek Attridge who argues for a form of affirmative criticism which positions the critic as a lover of the text while from Amsterdam Dubravka Ugrešić reflects on life in a literary out of nation zone adrift in a territory where intellectual protest has been stripped of ideological impetus and subsumed by the voraciousness of the market Taken together these essays initiate a series of conversations about who reads what and why about the practice of writing and criticism at this particular contemporary moment and about the activities and institutions that shape an understanding of what literature is and what it can do
