Miracle Fair: Selected Poems of Wislawa Szymborska Wislawa Szymborska, 2002-11-17 Samples the full range of Nobel Prize winning poet Wislawa Szymborska's major themes: the ironies of love, history lessons unlearned, our parochial human perspective, humanity's place in the cosmos and the illusory character of art. Szymborska's voice emerges as that of a humanitarian graced with a gift for coaxing the extraordinary out of the ordinary in life and language. Miracle Fair: Selected Poems of Wislawa Szymborska Wislawa Szymborska, 2002-11-17 Miracle Fair is Szymborska at her very best. Harvard Book Review Winner of the Heldt Prize for Translation. A new translation of the Nobel Prize winning Polish poet with an introduction by Czeslaw Milosz. This long awaited volume samples the full range of Wislawa Szymborska's major themes: the ironies of love, the wonders of nature's beauty and the illusory character of art. Szymborska's voice emerges as that of a gentle subversive, self-deprecating in its wit yet graced with a gift for coaxing the extraordinary out of the ordinary. Girl with Dead Bird Volkmar Mühleis, 2018-03-16 Life and death in a sixteenth century masterpiece. The portrait we have come to call Little Girl with Dead Bird is an enigma. On the one hand we hardly know anything about this sixteenth century masterpiece. But even so, on the other hand, the picture fascinates viewers to this day. This painting's indeterminate yet compelling status provides Volkmar Mühleis grounds to look beyond its historical significance and to explore its anthropological scope as well from an intercultural perspective and moreover against the backdrop of its complex of themes concerning life and death. To do so, Mühleis returns to the conceptual premises that frame the relationship between the history of art and the anthropology of images along with those that juxtapose Western and Eastern philosophies. Gender Equity Elena V. Shabliy, Kimarie Engerman, Dmitry Kurochkin, 2022-08-25 Gender Equity: Global Policies and Perspectives on Advancing Social Justice provides an in-depth analysis of global perspectives on advancing public and social gender policy. Shedding new light on inequalities faced by women and girls around the world, the essays in this collection emphasize cultural biases and societal prejudices women face in STEM and in creative economies as well as in political decision-making processes. In doing so, the volume highlights the interlinked relationship between the advancement of global policy and the very interpretation of gender equality. Walking with Abel Anna Badkhen, 2016-08-02 Look out for Anna Badkhen's new book Fisherman's Blues: A West African Community at Sea on sale now. An intrepid journalist joins the planet's largest group of nomads on an annual migration that like them has endured for centuries. Anna Badkhen has forged a career chronicling life in extremis around the world from war-torn Afghanistan to the border regions of the American Southwest. In Walking with Abel, she embeds herself with a family of Fulani cowboys, nomadic herders in Mali's Sahel grasslands as they embark on their annual migration across the savanna. It's a cycle that connects the Fulani to their past even as their present is increasingly under threat from Islamic militants, climate change and the ever-encroaching urbanization that lures away their young. The Fulani, though, are no strangers to uncertainty: brilliantly resourceful and resilient, they've contended with famines, droughts, and wars for centuries Dubbed Anna Ba by the nomads who embrace her as one of theirs Badkhen narrates the Fulani s journeys and her own with compassion and keen observation transporting us from the Neolithic Sahara crisscrossed by rivers and abundant with wildlife to obelisk forests where the Fulani s Stone Age ancestors painted tributes to cattle As they cross the Sahel the savanna belt that stretches from the Indian Ocean to the Atlantic they accompany themselves with Fulani music they download to their cell phones and tales of herders and hustlers griots and holy men infused with the myths the Fulani tell themselves to ground their past make sense of their identity and safeguard their our future Atomic Collective

An Empty Seat in Class Rick Ayers,2015 The death of a student especially to gun violence is a life changing experience that occurs with more and more frequency in America s schools For each of these tragedies there is a classroom and there is a teacher Yet student death is often a forbidden subject removed from teacher education and professional development classes where the curriculum is focused instead on learning about standards lesson plans and pedagogy What can and should teachers do when the unbearable happens An Empty Seat in Class illuminates the tragedy of student death and suggests ways of dealing and healing within the classroom community This book weaves the story of the author's very personal experience of a student's fatal shooting with short pieces by other educators who have worked through equally terrible events and also includes contributions from counselors therapists and school principals Through accumulated wisdom educators are given the means and the resources to find their own path to healing their students their communities and themselves A dreadful script had been written for our school and town and the world but this did not mean that a new script could not be written by us We didn't have to subscribe to the tragic script beyond our control It was time to rewrite Lee Keylock high school teacher Sandy Hook CT This book is a meditation on the unspeakable horror and ensuing anguish that follows the death of a student A heretofore taboo subject teachers have much to share about their creative improvisational praxes when shared cultural scripts in urban classrooms are unavailable This moving and poignant text illuminates as much as it inspires Angela Valenzuela Professor of Education University of Texas Director of the Texas Center for Education Policy Written by the most important kind of expert someone who has been there Dr Ayers candidly discusses his own struggles following the violent death of one of his students This book serves as an invaluable guide providing research and practical tools on how to respond to a student death and facilitate a safe space in the classroom where students can ask questions express emotions and process their grief This is a must read for every teacher administrator and counselor so that a school is well prepared in the event of a tragedy Heidi Horsley executive director Open to Hope Foundation adjunct professor Columbia University School of Social Work For those who teach this book will likely evoke painful memories of loss and unrealized potential that accompanies the tragedy of any student's death Classrooms and communities are worlds of their own where saving one life or inspiring someone in even the most minute or momentary way can mean saving a whole world Ayers's book honors the lives of both teachers and students It is a book for all of us Jack Weinstein director San Francisco Bay Area Facing History and Ourselves
