Every Woman's Encyclopaedia ,1912 Woman I Feel You Carol Paris-Ellis,2012 Something strange and wonderful was happening to me in this place I began to write with hunger and passion I was like a mad woman Every hour of my day with all my sorrow and pinned up pain I wrote I got down on my knees in the prison dorm right in the midst of chaos I prayed and I asked the Lord if I wasn't asking too much to make me his poet I looked around to see if anyone could hear what I was saying in my prayer even the Lord himself I felt stupid and worthless but I had to try and see if I could get his attention To see if he really loved me and cared for me The women encouraged me so much they loved my writing and said they wanted to see a book I received more respect in Niantic than I did on the street I was told by several CO's that I was a model prisoner and yes I took the compliments Some of the women came to me for prayer and told me not to let go of God because he looks good on me I served eight months for violation of probation from June 1996 through Feb 1997 This was the longest stay and the last Now 15 yrs later here's the finished book When you stick close to God he always performs his word Every woman has a hidden treasure and you never know where you'll discover it
