MARCHANT,1885 Miracles of the Virgin in Medieval England Adrienne Williams Boyarin,2010 First book length study of hagiographical legends of the Virgin Mary in medieval England with particular reference to her relationship with Jews books and the law Legendary accounts of the Virgin Mary s intercession were widely circulated throughout the middle ages borrowing heavily as in hagiography generally from folktale and other motifs she is represented in a number of different often surprising ways rarely as the meek and mild mother of Christ but as bookish fierce and capricious amongst other attributes This is the first full length study of their place in specifically English medieval literary and cultural history While the English circulation of vernacular Miracles of the Virgin is markedly different from continental examples this book shows how difference and miscellaneity can reveal important developments within an unwieldy genre The author argues that English miracles in particular were influenced by medieval England s troubled history with its Jewish population and the rapid thirteenth century codification of English law so that Mary frequently becomes a figure with special dominion over Jewish text and legal problems The shifting codicological and historical contexts of these texts make it clear that the paradoxical sign Mary could signify in both surprisingly different and surprisingly consistent ways rendering Mary both mediatrix and legislatrix ADRIENNE WILLIAMS BOYARIN is Assistant Professor of English at the University of Victoria British Columbia
