Miracles Still Happen My Pilgrim Journey Begins One:

In a Different Place Jill Dubisch, 2016-09-29 In a Different Place offers a richly textured account of a modern pilgrimage combining ethnographic detail theory and personal reflection Visited by thousands of pilgrims yearly the Church of the Madonna of the Annunciation on the Aegean island of Tinos is a site where different interests sacred and secular local and national personal and official all come together Exploring the shrine and its surrounding town Jill Dubisch shares her insights into the intersection of social religious and political life in Greece Along the way she develops the idea of pilgrimage journeying away from home in search of the miraculous as a metaphor for anthropological fieldwork This highly readable work offers us the opportunity to share one anthropologist's personal and professional journey and to see in a different place the inadequacy of such conventional anthropological categories as theory versus data rationality versus emotion and the observer versus the observed Dubisch examines in detail the process of pilgrimage itself its relationship to Orthodox belief and practice the motivations and behavior of pilgrims the relationship between religion and Greek national identity and the gendered nature of religious roles Seeking to evoke rather than simply describe her book presents readers with a sense of the emotion color and power of pilgrimage at this Greek island shrine My Camino One Last Walk Sean Lewis, 2015-11-06

Keener, 2011-11-01 Christianity Today 2013 Book Award Winner Winner of The Foundation for Pentecostal Scholarship's 2012 Award of Excellence 2011 Book of the Year Christianbook.com's Academic Blog Most modern prejudice against biblical miracle reports depends on David Hume's argument that uniform human experience precluded miracles Yet current research shows that human experience is far from uniform In fact hundreds of millions of people today claim to have experienced miracles New Testament scholar Craig Keener argues that it is time to rethink Hume's argument in light of the contemporary evidence available to us This wide ranging and meticulously researched two volume study presents the most thorough current defense of the credibility of the miracle reports in the Gospels and Acts Drawing on claims from a range of global cultures and taking a multidisciplinary approach to the topic Keener suggests that many miracle accounts throughout history and from contemporary times are best explained as genuine divine acts lending credence to the biblical miracle reports To the Field of Stars Kevin A. Cancer: A Pilgrim Companion Gillian Straine, 2017-01-19 Someone in the UK is diagnosed with cancer every two minutes A cancer diagnosis divides life into before and after and plunges those facing the disease into a wilderness of uncertainty fear and suffering In this wise and compassionate book cancer survivor and Anglican priest Dr Gillian Straine considers some of the unhelpful imagery that bombards those diagnosed with the disease How often do we say or hear that someone has lost their battle with cancer or is fighting hard This suggests that cancer can be defeated by sheer force of will alone or that someone who does not conquer cancer was not fighting hard enough Gillian Straine suggest another way through the cancer wilderness by following the journey of Jesus himself through the darkness of the garden of Gethsemane and his journey to death on the cross and beyond to the glimmers of hope afforded by the resurrection Drawing on theology Scripture and the arts Gillian explores the taboos of cancer and offers solace and hope to all those facing the disease and their friends and supporters Walking in the Mud Phil Volker,2022-07-12 After facing a life changing cancer diagnosis Phil Volker started walking a circuitous route around his ten acre backyard It was a chance to exercise which his doctors had encouraged but also created a sacred space to think and pray Realizing that he was covering quite a distance he found a map of the Camino de Santiago pilgrimage route and began to map his progress calculating that 909 laps would get him from St Jean Pied de Port to the Cathedral of St James Volker completed five caminos five hundred miles each without leaving his backyard and many visitors have found healing solace and consolation in walking with him Phil s life was transformed by what he calls his three Cs Camino Catholicism and Cancer Part spiritual autobiography part pilgrimage journal and part Old Farmer s Almanac this book is the story of his journey Golden Age ,1922 BABA Rajesh Kamath,2023-07-03 Baba father or revered elder a common honorific in India for saints and holy men Baba a faceless name for the Masters of the Tradition who have shepherded and guided humanity since Eternity Baba the unique colours diffracted from one Consciousness Mahavatar Babaji Shirdi Sai Baba Sathya Sai Baba Bade Baba Neem Karoli Baba Meher Baba amongst countless others Baba the promise of the Tradition that never leaves a true seeker s hand transcending oceans of existence to be with them Baba the compassion incarnates who travel the seven worlds and seven seas to find and rescue a pure soul Baba the grand collaboration that ensures the continued preservation of dharma righteousness in the Universe This book is about the myriad interactions experiences and associations of Mohanji with various Masters of the Tradition Mohanji s journey from a seeker to a Guide and his continuing work in the world provides a unique window into how the Tradition orchestrates one of its projections From the fleeting to the profoundly engaging each connection reveals a facet of the Grand Tradition that operates selflessly unseen behind the shadows A rare glimpse into the inner workings of the Masters of the Tradition who though diverse in expressions operate in extreme unity and purposefulness burning like candles to give light and purity to the world
