Mirage Of The Ages A Critique Of Christianity:

Mirage of the Ages Andrew Tomas,1983-10-01 The Journal of Critical Analysis ,1979 A Secular Age Charles Taylor,2007-09-20 The place of religion in society has changed profoundly in the last few centuries particularly in the West In what will be a defining book for our time Taylor takes up the question of what these changes mean and what precisely happens when a society becomes one in which faith is only one human possibility among others The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Medievalism and Metal Music Studies Ruth Barratt-Peacock,Ross Hagen,2019-09-06 This edited collection investigates metal music s enduring fascination with the medieval period from a variety of critical perspectives exploring how metal musicians and fans use the medieval period as a fount for creativity and critique Mirage of the Saracen Walter D. Ward,2014-12-17 Mirage of the Saracen analyzes the growth of monasticism and Christian settlements in the Sinai Peninsula through the early seventh century C E Walter D Ward examines the ways in which Christian monks justified occupying the Sinai through creating associations between Biblical narratives and Sinai sites while assigning uncivilized negative and oppositional traits to the indigenous nomadic population whom the Christians pejoratively called Saracens By writing edifying tales of hostile nomads and the ensuing martyrdom of the monks Christians not only reinforced their claims to the spiritual benefits of asceticism but also provoked the Roman authorities to enhance defense of pilgrimage routes to the Sinai When Muslim armies later began conquering the Middle East Christians also labeled these new conquerors as Saracens connecting Muslims to these pre Islamic representations This timely and relevant work builds a historical account of interreligious encounters in the ancient world showing the Sinai as a crucible for forging long lasting images of both Christians and Muslims some of which endure today Jesus in an Age of Neoliberalism James G. Crossley,2014-10-20 Jesus in an Age of Neoliberalism analyses the ideology underpinning contemporary scholarly and popular quests for the historical Jesus Focusing on cultural and political issues the book examines postmodernism multiculturalism and the liberal masking of power The study ranges across diverse topics the dubious periodisation of the quest for the historical Jesus biblioblogging Jesus the Great Man and western individualism image conscious Jesus scholarship the Jewishness of Jesus and the multicultural Other evangelical and mythical Jesuses and the contradictions between personal beliefs and dominant ideological trends in the construction of historical Jesuses Jesus in an Age of Neoliberalism offers readers a radical revisioning of contemporary biblical studies A Cultural History of Race in the Middle Ages Thomas Hahn,2023-06-01 This volume presents a comprehensive and collaborative survey of how people individually and within collective entities thought about experienced and enacted racializing differences Addressing events texts and images from the 5th to the 16th centuries these essays by ten eminent scholars provide broad multi disciplinary analyses of materials whose origins range from the British Isles Western Iberia and North Africa across Western and Eastern Europe to the Middle East These diverse communities possessed no single word equivalent to modern race a term raza for genetic religious cultural or territorial difference that emerges only at the end of the medieval period Chapter by chapter this volume nonetheless demonstrates the manifold beliefs practices institutions and images that conveyed and enforced difference for the benefit of particular groups and to the detriment of others Addressing the varying historiographical self consciousness concerning race among medievalist scholars themselves the separate analyses make use of paradigms drawn from social and political history religious environmental literary ethnic and gender studies the history of art and of science and critical race theory Chapters identify the eruption of racial discourses aroused by political or religious polemic centered upon conversion within and among Jewish Christian and Islamic communions and inspired by imagined or sustained contact with alien peoples Authors draw their evidence from Hebrew Latin Arabic and a profusion of European vernaculars and provide searching examinations of visual artefacts ranging from religious service books to maps mosaics and manuscript illuminations

Faith and Science. To which is added a critique upon the writings and character of the late Mr. Robertson, of Brighton Gilbert SUTTON (pseud. [i.e. John Frazer Corkran.]), 1868 Karl Jaspers and the Role of "conversion" in the Nuclear Age Gregory J. Walters, 1988 Analyzes and critiques Karl Jaspers philosophy on the atom bomb and its relation to the future of humanity This work studies the human transformations called for by Jaspers in science politics and religion and develops the limits and possibilities of Jaspers ideas from the perspective of present nuclear capabilities contemporary moral discourse and Christian faith

Faith and Science. To which is Added a Critique Upon the Writings and Character of the Late Rev. Mr. Robertson, of Brighton Gilbert Sutton, 1868 Labor and Capital in the Age of Globalization Berch Berberoglu, 2002 Ten contributions from scholars and activists discuss the political economy of the labor process in the age of global capitalism examining how the global economy effects ordinary people in the workplace Topics include for example the struggle for control at the point of production the division of labor along racial lines in U S agriculture and women and resistance in the transnational labor force Editor Berberoglu teaches sociology at the U of Nevada Reno Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Inventing Americans in the Age of Discovery Michael Householder, 2016-05-06 Inventing Americans in the Age of Discovery traces the linguistic rhetorical and literary innovations that emerged out of the first encounters between Europeans and indigenous peoples of the Americas Through analysis of six texts Michael Householder demonstrates the role of language in forming the identities or characters that permitted Europeans English speakers primarily to adapt to the unusual circumstances of encounter Arranged chronologically the texts examined include John Mandeville s Travels Richard Eden s English language translations of the accounts of Spanish and Portuguese discovery and conquest George Best s account of Martin Frobisher s voyages to northern Canada Ralph Lane s account of the abandonment of Roanoke John Smith s writings about Virginia and John Underhill s account of the Pequot War Through his analysis Householder reveals that English colonists did not share a universal homogenous view of indigenous Americans as savages but that the writers confronted by unfamiliar peoples and situations resorted to a mixed array of cultural beliefs myths and theories to put together workable explanations of their experiences which then became the basis for how Europeans in the colonies began transforming themselves into Americans

The Mirage of Dignity on the Highways of Human 'Progress' Lukman Harees,2012-01-16 The Modern Man is hypocritically boasting of unprecedented material progress in a world where inter alia millions daily go to bed hungry die or get killed through unwanted wars and preventable causes live in inhumane conditions vulnerable being exploited with ever widening inequality and might still ruling over right in international relations even in the post UDHR era an indictment on the collective conscience of mankind Besides the flame of materialism has been devouring time tested moral values causing chaos within the basic unit in society the family and relegating Man and his dignity to the level of animals and even manipulating his identity Therefore questions arise Is Moral law fading are political economic systems and institutions like UN failing in realizing the lofty goal of affording due dignity basic rights and social justice humanity deserves Can the bystanders be mere onlookers anymore This book seeks to dispassionately survey the yawning gap between the rhetoric and the ground reality in bringing about dignity and social justice for humanity from bystanders perspective in the light of these questions and underlines the imperative need for moral progress to go hand in hand to make Man assume his due role as the trustee on earth It also exhorts bystanders to close ranks as human dignity champions rights defenders identity protectors against onslaughts from power hungry politicians mighty powers and vested interests This is the need of the times and what our future progeny demands Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1992 Voices from the Borderland Chris

Shannahan,2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology Books in Print Supplement ,1988 The doctrine of man Augustus Hopkins Strong,1907 Philosophical and Theological Responses to Syncretism Mika Vähäkangas,Patrik Fridlund,2017-09-25 Theological and Philosophical Responses to Syncretism Beyond the Mirage of Pure Religion by Patrik Fridlund and Mika V h kangas eds starts from the observation that there is a substantial gap between religions self understanding and the empirical results of religious studies concerning religious blending Even in theology of religion one often portrays religions as if they were entities fundamentally separate from each other The aims of this book are to elaborate theologically the consequences of syncretism to Christian faith and of syncretism to philosophy By creating a critical interchange between theological philosophical and empirical approaches to religion this book challenges the conventional views of purity of religions prevailing in theology and philosophy as well as proposes theological and philosophical ways forward Contributors are Jonas Adelin Stephen Bevans Gavin d Costa Patrik Fridlund Lotta Gammelin Elizabeth Harris Jerker Karlsson Paul Linjamaa Kang San Tan Mika V h kangas The Idea of Semitic Monotheism Guy G. Stroumsa, 2021 The Idea of Semitic Monotheism examines some major aspects of the scholarly study of religion in the long nineteenth century from the Enlightenment to the First World War It aims to understand the new status of Judaism and Islam in the formative period of the new discipline Guy G Stroumsa focuses on the concept of Semitic monotheism a concept developed by Ernest Renan around the mid nineteenth century on the basis of the postulated and highly problematic contradistinction between Aryan and Semitic families of peoples cultures and religions This contradistinction grew from the Western discovery of Sanskrit and its relationship with European languages at the time of the Enlightenment and Romanticism Together with the rise of scholarly Orientalism this discovery offered new perspectives on the East as a consequence of which the Near East was demoted from its traditional status as the locus of the Biblical revelations This innovative work studies a central issue in the modern study of religion Doing so however it emphasizes the new dualistic taxonomy of religions had major consequences and sheds new light on the roots of European attitudes to Jews and Muslims in the twentieth century up to the present day
