Mirages of Transition Nils Jacobsen, 2023-09-01 This case study of the Peruvian altiplano the vast high altitude plains surrounding Lake Titicaca combines economic and social analysis with cultural and institutional history Nils Jacobsen challenges the prevailing view that the rural Andes underwent a successful transition to capitalism between the mid nineteenth and early twentieth centuries He argues that although the political economic and administrative structures of colonialism were gradually dismantled by the region s advancing market economy colonial modes of constructing power and social identity have lingered on even to this day The result of painstaking research in remote rural archives some of them now made inaccessible by the Shining Path Mirages of Transition will become the definitive work on the Peruvian highlands This case study of the Peruvian altiplano the vast high altitude plains surrounding Lake Titicaca combines economic and social analysis with cultural and institutional history Nils Jacobsen challenges the prevailing view that the rural Andes underwent

Mirages of Transition Nils Jacobsen, 1993-10-08 One of the finest works on Latin America to come along in a decade Jacobsen s methods have relevance for many other areas of rural Latin America and will set the standard for some time to come Erick D Langer Carnegie Mellon University

The Independent Republic of Arequipa Thomas F. Love, 2017-11-29 Arequipa Peru s second largest city has the most intense regional culture in the central Andes Arequipa os fiercely conceive of themselves as exceptional and distinctive yet also broadly representative of the nation s overall hybrid nature a blending of coast modern white and sierra traditional indigenous The Independent Republic of Arequipa investigates why and how this regional identity developed in a boom of cultural production after the War of the Pacific 1879 1884 through the mid twentieth century Drawing on decades of ethnographic fieldwork Thomas F Love offers the first anthropological history of southwestern Peru s distinctive regional culture He examines both its pre Hispanic and colonial altiplano foundations anchored in continuing pilgrimage to key Marian shrines and the nature of its mid nineteenth century revolutionary identity in cross class resistance to Lima s autocratic control of nation building in the post Independence state Love then examines Arequipa s early twentieth century mestizo identity an early and unusual case of browning of regional identity in the context of raging debates about the national question and the Indian problem as well as the post WWII development of extravagant displays of distinctive bull on bull fighting that now constitute the very performance of regional identity Love s research reveals that Arequipa s traditional local culture symbolically marked by populist secular and rural elements was in fact a project of urban based largely middle class cultural entrepreneurs invented to counter continuing Lime o autocratic power marked by nostalgia and anxious about the inclusion of the nation s indigenous majority as full modern citizens

Colonialism and Postcolonial Development James Mahoney, 2010-02-15 In this comparative historical analysis of Spanish America Mahoney offers a new theory of colonialism and postcolonial development He explores why certain kinds of societies are subject to certain kinds of colonialism and why these forms of colonialism give rise to countries with differing levels of economic prosperity and social well being Mahoney contends that differences in the extent of colonialism are best explained by the potentially evolving fit between the institutions of the colonizing nation and those of the colonized society Moreover he shows how institutions forged under colonialism bring countries to relative levels of development that may prove remarkably enduring in the postcolonial period The argument is sure to stir discussion and debate both among experts on Spanish America who believe that development is not tightly bound by the colonial past and among scholars of colonialism who suggest that the institutional identity of the colonizing nation is of little consequence
