Mirror Of Production:

The Mirror of Production Jean Baudrillard, 1975 Are the concepts of labor and of production adaptable to a developing industrial society What is the meaning of pre industrial organization In attempting to answer these questions Jean Baudrillard examines the lessons of Marxism which has created a productivist model and a fetishism of labor He argues that we must break the mirror of production which reflects all of Western metaphysics and free the Marxist logic from the restrictive context of political economy whence it was born A book certain to provide serious and much needed debate publisher description The Mirror of Production Jean Baudrillard, 2021-03-30 The most provocative work from the father of postmodernism A spectre haunts the revolutionary imagination the spectre of production Revolutionary thought from Marx to Deleuze merely replicates the obsession with production of classical political economy Jean Baudrillard s provocative early study The Mirror of Production marks the point at which his thought breaks from the tenants of Marxism Instead Baudrillard seeks to go further than Marx radicalising his thought by breaking with the capitalist logic of production in its entirety Combining semiotics with a skilled reworking of critical theory he carries out a thorough critique of Marxism arguing that by placing production at the centre of its analysis it serves to naturalise capitalism instead of abolishing it Instead what we need is a thorough attack on productivism in all its forms and a total break from the logic of capital Subjects and
