Mirror For Marriage:

Marriage to Death Rush Rehm, 2019-01-15 The link between weddings and death as found in dramas ranging from Romeo and Juliet to Lorca's Blood Wedding plays a central role in the action of many Greek tragedies. Female characters such as Cassandra, Antigone, and Helen enact and refer to significant parts of wedding and funeral rites but often in a twisted fashion. Over time the pressure of dramatic events causes the distinctions between weddings and funerals to disappear. In this book Rush Rehm considers how and why the conflation of the two ceremonies comes to theatrical life in the tragedies of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides. By focusing on the dramatization of important rituals conducted by women in ancient Athenian society, Rehm offers a new perspective on Greek tragedy and the challenges it posed for its audience. The conflation of weddings and funerals, the author argues, unleashes a kind of dramatic alchemy whereby female characters become the bearers of new possibilities. Such as formulation enables the tragedians to explore the limitations of traditional thinking and acting in fifth-century Athens. Rehm finds that when tragic weddings and funerals become confused and perverted, the aftershocks disturb the political and ideological givens of Athenian society, challenging the audience to consider new and often radically different directions for their city. Rush Rehm is Assistant Professor of Drama and Classics at Stanford University and a free-lance theater director. He is the author of Greek Tragic Theatre (Routledge) and Aeschylus Oresteia (A Theatre Vision). Hawthorn. Originally published in 1994. English Edition Renato & Cristiane Cardoso, 2015-01-13 Marriage was God's idea. He decided that man and woman should be one flesh. Furthermore, the Bible says God is love. Unfortunately, many couples never learned to love each other. A feeling, passion, or some other influence brought them together, but they never learned how to study or explore each other or discover what makes them happy. When you do not know another person, it is impossible to love them because you do not know what pleases or annoys them, their dreams and struggles, or how they think. In such ignorance, you will make many mistakes in your relationship and so cause many problems. These problems will cause you to withdraw even though you are married and were in love at one time. If you have been wondering, "Do I still love my husband/wife? Did I marry the wrong person? Why is my partner so cold to me? Why do we love each other but can't stay together? How can I make sure my marriage lasts? How can I live with a person who is so difficult? Why do our problems go away but then come back worse than before? Is my marriage always going to be about hardships, or will I find happiness one day?" Cheer up! You will learn how to love intelligently and how to be happy with your spouse even if he or she acts like King Kong. Marriages Made in Heaven Dan Evangelist Jones
