

Changing course...

Alys had run away, raw and devastated, from Titus Irvine and the love that had fallen victim to stubborn, uncompromising anger. Time had done little to heal the wounds.

Now, the cruise ship they were coincidentally both aboard seemed smaller every time their eyes met in naked confrontation—putting an instant torch to a fire ~~that~~ that had never really died.

Alys knew she had to stop running—from the pain, the bitterness and the fears born of past mistakes. But was she strong enough to give the love of a lifetime a second chance?
