Belonging and Estrangement in the Poetry of Philip Larkin, R.S. Thomas and Charles Causley Rory Waterman, 2016-04-22

Focusing on the significance of place connection and relationship in three poets who are seldom considered in conjunction Rory Waterman argues that Philip Larkin R S Thomas and Charles Causley epitomize many of the emotional and societal shifts and mores of their age Waterman looks at the foundations underpinning their poetry the attempts of all three to forge a sense of belonging with or separateness from their readers the poets varying responses to their geographical and cultural origins the belonging and estrangement that inheres in relationships including marriage the forced estrangements of war the antagonism between social belonging and a need for isolation and finally the charged issues of faith and mortality in an increasingly secularized country

Science and National Consciousness in Bengal J. Lourdasamy, 2004 This book gives a flavour of the Indian response to modern science by analysing the lives and careers of four scientifically influential personalities in Bengal His analysis of the careers of two scientists J C Bose and P C Ray and two institution builders Mahendralal Sircar and Asutosh Mookerjee brings to light the issues related to science at a time of colonialism and nationalism Scientists often had to depend on British institutions for legitimation and funding while also supporting the nationalist cause for greater autonomy One of the central claims of this book is that the protagonists aimed to contribute to a modern world science one based on a strong sense of universalism They did not aim to construct any alternative sciences though they did express and apply their work by drawing on their cultural heritage This makes Science and National Consciousness a work of particular relevance today when a homogenous instrumentalist and totally Western conception of science is being globally accepted

The Lay of the Last Minstrel, and Marmion Walter Scott, 1869      Romantic Literary Families S. Krawczyk, 2009-07-20 The late eighteenth century witnessed the emergence of the literary family a collaborative kinship network of family and friends that by the end of the century displayed characteristics of a nascent corporation This book examines different models of collaboration within English literary families during the period 1760 1820 Beginning with the sibling model of Anna Barbauld and John Aikin and concluding with the intergenerational model presented by the Godwins and the Shelleys this study traces the conflict and cooperation that developed within and among literary families as they sought to leave their legacies on the English world of letters

Miscellanies, Poetry, and Authorship, 1680-1800 Carly Watson, 2021-03-26 This book is a critical study of the ancestors of contemporary poetry anthologies the poetic miscellanies of the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries It argues that miscellanies are a distinctive kind of literary collection and that their popularity in the period 1680 1800 had a far reaching impact on authors publishers and readers of poetry This study expands the definition of miscellanies to include single author collections called miscellanies as well as the multiple author collections that have traditionally been the focus of scholarly attention It shows how multiple author miscellanies fostered different kinds of literary community and explores the neglected role of single author miscellanies in the self fashioning of eighteenth century writers Later chapters examine miscellanies relationships with periodicals their contribution to the formation of the literary canon and their reception and transformation in the hands of readers The book draws on newly available digital data as well as evidence from hundreds of printed miscellanies to shed new light on how poetry was written published and read in the long eighteenth century Bibliotheca Britannica; Or a General Index to British and Foreign Literature. Wolfson, 2021-05-11 The first standard edition of the writings of Felicia Hemans 1793 1835 this volume marks a revival of interest in and a new critical appreciation of one of the most important literary figures of the early nineteenth century A best selling poet in England and America Felicia Hemans was regarded as leading female poet in her day celebrated as the epitome of national feminine values However this same narrow perception of her work eventually relegated Hemans to an obscurity lightened occasionally by parody and a sentimental enthusiasm for poems such as The Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers and Casabianca Only now is Hemans's work being rediscovered and reconsidered for the complexity of its social and political vision but also for its sounding of dissonances in nineteenth century cultural ideals and for its recasting of the traditional canon of male Romantics Offering readers a firsthand acquaintance with the remarkable range of Hemans's writing this volume includes five major works in their entirety along with a much admired aggregate Records of Woman Hemans's letters many published here for the first time reflect her views of her contemporaries her work

her negotiations with publishers and her emerging celebrity while reviews and letters from others including Lord Byron Walter Scott and the Wordsworths tell the story of Hemans s reception in her time An introduction by editor Susan Wolfson puts these writings as well as Hemans s life and work into much needed perspective for the contemporary reader
