

7 WAYS TO USE SOCIAL MEDIA — IN THE ESL CLASSROOM —

Go Social with Edmodo

Often referred to as the "Facebook for schools", Edmodo is a platform that allows you to create a digital classroom & post assignments, announcements and interact with your Ss, as well as ESL teachers located throughout the globe.

Hang out!

Google Hangouts can be an invaluable resource for students who need to work on a project but can't work out a schedule to meet at the same place, at the same time. You may also choose to host a special Hangout outside class hours.

Digital Citizenship

More and more companies and college admissions boards are checking social media profiles when researching candidates. With the advent of online resumes, ESL students are in dire need of digital literacy, as well as English fluency. Teach them how to write a professional-looking LinkedIn profile, or discuss what (not) to post to their Facebook profiles.

Keep Me Posted

Create a Twitter account or Facebook page/group for your class. Students compose Tweets or posts about something they're learning, for example, Thanksgiving traditions in North America, for family and friends to read.

ESL Bloggers

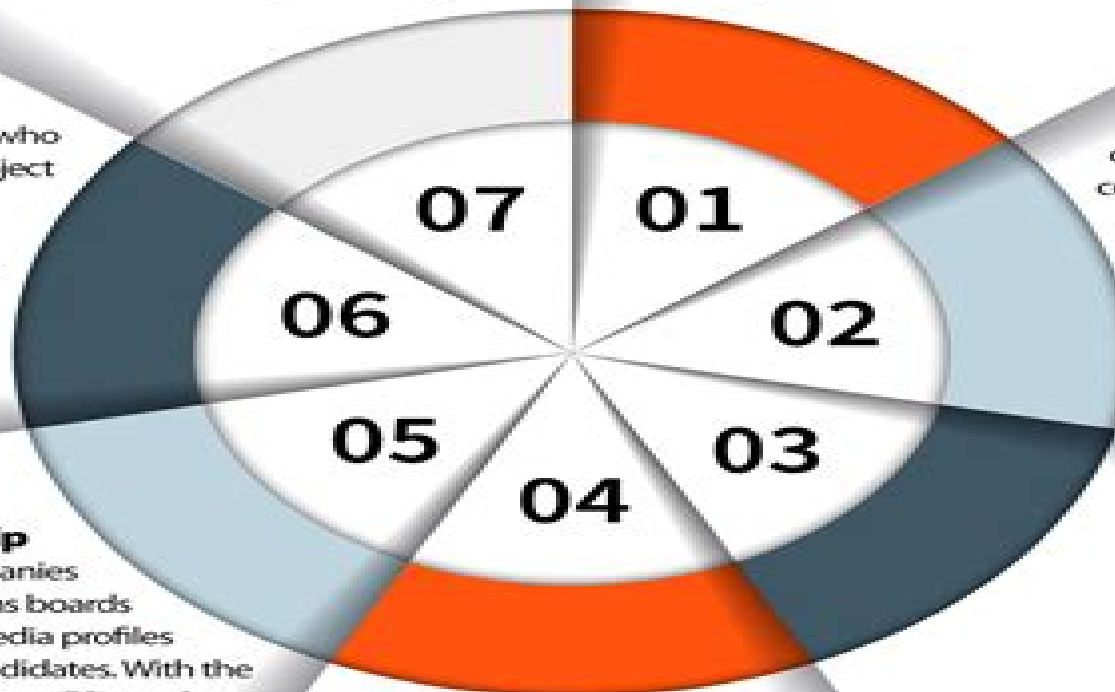

Create a blog for your class and have students contribute regular posts. Students then share their posts on several social media sites. They may also reply to comments to their posts.

Connected Classrooms

Reach out to classrooms/schools in other cities/states/countries. Use social media to facilitate interaction among ESL students from different cultural backgrounds.

Youtubers

Have a YouTube channel for your class. Create and upload videos of your students acting out role plays, interviewing each other or putting on a show. Share videos with family and friends.
