Current Trends in Slavery Studies in Brazil Stephan Conermann,Mariana Dias Paes,Roberto Hofmeister Pich,Paulo Cruz Terra,2023-05-22 African slaves were brought into Brazil as early as 1530 with abolition in 1888 During those three centuries Brazil received 4 000 000 Africans over four times as many as any other American destination Comparatively speaking Brazil received 40% of the total number of Africans brought to the Americas while the US received approximately 10% Due to this huge influx of Africans today Brazil s African descended population is larger than the population of most African countries Therefore it is no surprise that Slavery Studies are one of the most consolidated fields in Brazilian historiography In the last decades a number of discussions have flourished on issues such as slave agency slavery and law slavery and capitalism slave families demography of slavery transatlantic slave trade abolition etc In addition to these more consolidated fields current research has focused on illegal enslavement global perspectives on slavery and the slave trade slavery and gender the engagement of different social groups in the abolitionist movement or Atlantic connections Taking into consideration these new trends of Brazilian slavery studies this volume of collected articles gives leading scholars the chance to present their research to a broader academic community Thus the interested reader get to know in more detail these current trends in Brazilian historiography on slavery

Bajus,Cici Malik,2022-12-22 In this anthology Vincent Barletta Mark L Bajus and Cici Malik treat the Iberian lyric in the late Middle Ages and early modernity as a deeply multilingual transnational genre that needs to break away from the old essentialist ideas about language geography and identity in order to be understood properly More and more scholars and students are recognizing the limitations of single language nationalist and period bound canons and are looking for different ways to approach the study of literature The Iberian Peninsula is an excellent site for this approach where the history and politics of the region along with its creative literature need to be read and studied together with the way the works were composed by poets and eventually consumed by readers With a generous selection of more than one hundred poems from thirty three poets Dreams of Waking is unique in its coverage of the three main languages Catalan Portuguese and Spanish and lyrical styles employed by peninsular poets It contains new translations of canonical poems but also translations of many poems that have never before been edited or translated Brief headnotes provide essential details of the poets lives and a general introduction by the volume editors shows how the poems and languages fruitfully intersect With helpful annotations to the poetry as well as a selected bibliography containing the most important editions and translations from all three of the main Iberian languages this volume will be an indispensable tool for both specialists and students in comparative literature Cartas de Echo e Narciso ... seguidas de diferentes peças, relativas ao mesmo objecto ...
