Reading Hollywood Spaces And Meanings In American Film:

Reading Hollywood Deborah Thomas, 2019-07-25 This book examines the treatment of space and narrative in a selection of classic films including My Darling Clementine It's a Wonderful Life and Vertigo Deborah Thomas employs a variety of arguments in exploring the reading of space and its meaning in Hollywood cinema and film generally Topics covered include the importance of space in defining genre such as the necessity of an urban landscape for a gangster film to be a gangster film the ambiguity of offscreen space and spectatorship how an audience reads an unseen but inferred setting and the use of spatially disruptive cinematic techniques such as flashback to construct meaning Silent Cinema Lawrence

Napper, 2017-09-05 Since the spectacular success of The Artist 2011 there has been a resurgence of interest in silent cinema and particularly in the lush and passionate screen dramas of the 1920s This book offers an introduction to the cinema of this extraordinary period outlining the development of the form between the end of the First World War and the introduction of synchronized sound at the end of the 1920s Lawrence Napper addresses the relationship between film aesthetics and the industrial and political contexts of film production through a series of case studies of national cinemas It also focuses on film going as the most popular leisure activity of the age Topics such as the star system cinema buildings musical accompaniments film fashions and fan cultures are addressed all the elements that ensured that the experience of the pictures was big The international dominance of Hollywood is outlined as are the different responses to that dominance in Britain Germany and the USSR Case studies seek to move beyond the familiar silent canon and include The Oyster Princess 1919 It 1927 Shooting Stars 1927 and The Girl with the Hatbox 1927 The Language and Style of Film Criticism Andrew

Klevan, Alex Clayton, 2011-04-26 The Language and Style of Film Criticism brings together original essays from an international range of academics and film critics highlighting the achievements complexities and potential of film criticism In recent years in contrast to the theoretical historical and cultural study of film film criticism has been relatively marginalised especially within the academy This book highlights the distinctiveness of film criticism and addresses ways in which it can take a more central place within the academy and develop in dynamic ways outside it The Language and Style of Film Criticism is essential reading for academics teachers students and journalists who wish to understand and appreciate the language and style of film criticism Documentary Paul Ward, 2006-03-17

In using case studies such as Touching the Void 2003 and the films of Nick Broomfield this timely introduction to the growing field of documentary explores the definition and understanding of the form as well as the relationship between documentary and drama specifically the notion of reconstruction and reenactment Paul Ward also discusses animated documentaries the fertile genre of comedy and feature length contemporary works that have achieved widespread cinematic release Italian Neorealism Mark Shiel, 2006-03-17 Italian Neorealism Rebuilding the Cinematic City is a valuable introduction to one of the most influential of film movements Exploring the roots and causes of neorealism particularly the effects of the Second World War as well as its politics and style

Elaine Chan,2019-11-27 This book is a scholarly investigation of the historical development and contemporary transformation of film noir in today s Hong Kong Focusing on the evolvement of cinematic narratives aesthetics and techniques the author balances a deep reading of the multiple filmic plots with a discussion of the cinematic portrayals of gender romance identities and power relations Nuancing the prototypical cinematic form and tragic sense of classical film noir the recent Hong Kong cinema turns around the classical generic role of film noir at the turn of the century to convey very different messages joy hope or love This book examines how the mainstream cinema or pre and post Hong Kong cinema in particular applies a peculiar strategy that makes rooms for the audience to enjoy a pleasure giving process of reflexivity and also critique the mainstream ideology With new analytical approaches and angles this book breaks new ground in offering transcultural and cross genre analyses on the cinema and its impact in local and international markets This book is the first major scholarly investigation of the historical development and contemporary transformation of film noir in today s Hong Kong Focusing on the evolvement of cinematic narratives aesthetics and techniques the author balances a deep reading of the multiple filmic plots with a refreshing discussion of the cinematic portrayals of gender romance identities and power relations This book also revisits conceptual categories developed by Foucault Lacan Derrida and Butler Style and Meaning John Gibbs,Douglas Pye,2005-08-06 With a common focus on the decisions made by filmmakers the essays in this collection explore different aspects of the relationship between textual detail and broader conceptual frameworks These texts reflect not only those areas of film history which have traditionally been explored through mise en scene criticism but also areas such as the avant garde and television drama which have not tended to receive such detailed investigation In these ways the book conducts a series of dialogues with issues in film study which are specifically provoked by close analysis
