

14 The Horse and the Prince

Alexander was a Greek Prince. He lived in Greece a long time ago. Once when Alexander's father was king, a man brought a horse to him. Alexander liked the horse. It was a fine horse - young and tall and strong.

"That's a beautiful horse!" thought Alexander. The king liked the horse too. "Who will ride this horse?" He asked his soldiers.

"I will," said a captain. He went near the horse but it kicked out and the captain fell.

"Who else will try?" asked the king. Another soldier tried. He was also thrown off. Then a third soldier tried and failed.

Why did Alexander ride a horse?

Because there were no cars at that time!

"It's a beautiful horse," said the king. "But what's the use? It throws its rider off."
