Readings For Older Women:

Readings for Older Women Meg Bowman, 1992 Readings in Unemployment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Unemployment Problems, 1960 Readings in Renaissance Women's Drama S. P. Cerasano, Marion Wynne-Davies, 2002-01-31 Readings in Renaissance Women's Drama is the most complete sourcebook for the study of this growing area of inquiry. It brings together for the first time a collection of the key critical commentaries and historical essays both classic and contemporary on Renaissance women's drama. Specifically designed to provide a comprehensive overview for students, teachers and scholars, this collection combines this century's key critical essays on drama by early modern women by early critics such as Virginia Woolf and T. S. Eliot, specially commissioned new essays by some of today's important feminist critics, a preface and introduction explaining this selection and contexts of the materials, a bibliography of secondary sources. Playwrights covered include Joanna Lumley, Elizabeth Cary, Mary Sidney, Mary Wroth and the Cavendish sisters.

Women and Ageing Margaret O'Neill, Michaela Schrage-Früh, 2020-12-17 This edited collection considers the ways older women's life narratives redefine culturally imposed conceptions of what it means to grow older. Drawing on research from age studies as well as social and cultural gerontology, the contributors explore the subjective accounts and diverse voices of older women. In doing so, they examine the tensions between older women's social identities versus their individual narratives. In their chapters, the contributors acknowledge, explore and contextualise women's experiences of growing older, thus counterbalancing the often one-sided negative representations of ageing perpetuated by dominant cultural discourse. They focus on diverse forms of life writing, including memoirs and autobiography, digital and visual forms of life narrative as well as autoethnographic accounts. As the chapters in this collection demonstrate, life writing by and about older women often necessitates opening out literary forms and modes of critique, searching for narrative and performative strategies and creating spaces in which to inscribe subjective experiences. Relationships, intergenerational connections and visual and material cues are often integral to these analyses, which assert the richness of older women's life narratives. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Life Writing. Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh, Rosie Campbell, Mike Keating, 2014-05-12 Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues, theories and debates, providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists. Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework, and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research. The text is divided into four main sections: Part One, Origins and Concepts, surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control, culture and socialisation; Parts Two and Four, Sociological Theories and Sociological Research, include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte, Emile Durkheim, Karl Marx, Max Weber and Charles Booth, and also include more recent theoretical writing and research.

approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied Women and Positive Aging Lisa Hollis-Sawyer, Amanda

Dykema-Engblade, 2016-03-03 Women and Positive Aging An International Perspective presents the noted research in the fields of psychology gerontology and gender studies reflecting the increasingly popular and pervasive positive aging issues of women in today's society from different cohorts backgrounds and life situations Each section describes a bridge between the theoretical aspects and practical applications of the theory that is consistent with the scientist practitioner training model in psychology including case studies and associated intervention strategies with older women in each chapter In addition to incorporating current research on aging women's issues each section provides the reader with background about the topic to give context and perspective Examines a comprehensive range of issues for aging women Details current research trends Encompasses a holistic model of women's aging Ranges from physical and mental health in response to aging changes to social relationships and sexuality Presents a how to put research into practice section in each chapter Focuses on topical issues that are relevant to women wanting to optimize their life outcomes as they live on average longer than ever before

Reichel's Care of the Elderly Joseph J. Gallo, William Reichel, 1999 Geared specifically for the family practitioner this text provides clinical approaches to the whole geriatric patient Topics covered in this fifth edition include behavioural disturbances in dementia driving and the older adult and clinical practice guidelines in the elderly Reading Early Modern Women's Writing Paul Salzman, 2006-11-30 Most people even within the area of English literature are unaware of how much writing women produced in the 16th and 17th centuries This book offers an outline of that writing and also looks at how it was read and reproduced through succeeding centuries Journal of the National Cancer Institute, 2003

Middle-aged Women in the Middle Ages Sue Niebrzydowski, 2011 The phenomenon of medieval women's middle age is a stage in the lifecycle that has been frequently overlooked in preference for the examination of female youth and old age The essays collected here draw variously from literary studies history law art and theology in order to address this lacuna
