Readings From The Mystics Of Islam:

Readings from the Mystics of Islam Margaret Smith, 1950 Readings from the Mystics of Islam Margaret Smith, 1994 Readings from the Mystics of Islam is an anthology of writings from Islamic mysticism's greatest masters of wisdom translated and edited by renowned scholar of Sufism Margaret Smith. The collection ranges from the beginnings of Sufism in the 8th century to the modern era and includes jewels of mystical thought and experience from Rabi'a al-Hallaj, Rumi, Ibn Arabi, and Hafiz.

Readings from the mystics of Islām Margaret Smith, 1972 Rabi'a The Mystic and her Fellow-Saints in Islam Margaret Smith, 1984-10-04 For centuries there has been fascination within and beyond the Islamic world with the mystical teachings of Sufism and with the role of the Islamic saints whose life and work were important to Islamic theology. Margaret Smith's classic work Rabi'a the Mystic describes the teaching life and times of one of the great women of the Islamic tradition, Rabi'a of Basra. This study has never been bettered. It is now reissued unchanged but with a new introduction by Professor Annemarie Schimmel. This emphasises the importance of the book and of Rabi'a herself and questions of major importance today: the nature of mystical belief and experience, the Sufi tradition and the role of women in the Islamic world.

Readings from the Mystics of Islam Margaret Smith, 1950 Religious Revelation James Kellenberger, 2020-10-19 This book addresses several dimensions of religious revelation. These include its occurrence in various religious traditions, its different forms, its elaborations, how it has been understood by Western theologians, and differing views of revelation's ontological status. It has been remarked that revelation is most at home in theistic traditions, and this book gives each of the three Abrahamic traditions—Judaism, Christianity, and Islam—its own chapter. Revelation, however, is not limited to theistic traditions; forms found in Buddhism and nondevotional, nontheistic Hinduism are also explored. In the book's final chapter, a particularly significant form of religious revelation is identified and examined: pervasive revelation. The theistic manifestation of this form of revelation, pervasive in the sense that it may occur in all the domains or dimensions of human existence, is shown to be richly represented in the Psalms, where God's presence may be found in the heavens, in the growing of grass, and in one's daily going out and coming in. Pervasive revelation of religious reality is also shown to be present in the Buddhist tradition.

The Word of Islam John Alden Williams, 2010-07-22 Since the 1970s, Islam has been undergoing a tremendous resurgence throughout the world. This resurgence has often been labeled Islamic fundamentalism by the media, but it includes believers of every persuasion, from the most conservative to the most liberal. Given this fact, it is vital for the West to understand the terms in which Islam thinks and to communicate effectively with Muslims. This anthology includes writings central to Islamic thought, some translated earlier but here redone, and others which have never before appeared in any Western language. The selections include an interpretation of the Qur'an as well as portions of the Hadith or sayings and actions of the Prophet, Islamic law, mysticism, Sufism, theology, and sectarian writings. A final essay on Islam today places these writings in their contemporary context and shows the breadth and variety of Islamic belief and practice Compiled with the intention of letting Islam describe itself in its own words the book is an important source for all students of Muslim culture and world religions This book is similar in scope to Williams well known 1961 George Braziller publication but freshly written and much improved The Literature of Islam Paula Youngman Skreslet, Rebecca Skreslet, 2006-09-20 This book introduces the literature of Islam as it is presented in English translation For scholars in other fields who need to understand the vast and complex literary heritage of this erudite and vigorous faith community but are unable to devote years of their lives to achieving a reading proficiency in classical Arabic for faculty members called upon to teach introductory or survey courses outside their own disciplines and for graduate students in theology medieval studies world religions or related fields who need access to these primary sources in English translation The Literature of Islam is a welcome resource Even lay readers who are interested in understanding the modern Arab or Islamic world may grasp something of the currents of thought and belief through the centuries that produced these important works which continue to exert a powerful influence upon Muslims today The primary literatures of Islam are normally classified into several areas of study the canonical literature the interpretation of scripture and tradition law theology philosophy history and mysticism Entries here are organized into these areas of study and represent the most significant texts from important trends in the discipline The volume also includes an extensive bibliography that lists the editions of primary sources analyzed in each chapter There are also some suggestions for secondary reading which might be helpful to a student seeking additional information about each genre of literature Religionsgeschichte des Orients in der Zeit der Weltreligionen Widengren, Spuler, Walter Dietrich, Fück, Leipoldt, Adam, Arberry, Gabain, Strothman, 2016-11-14

The Evangelical Counter-Enlightenment William R. Everdell, 2021-05-21 This contribution to the global history of ideas uses biographical profiles of 18th century contemporaries to find what Salafist and Sufi Islam Evangelical Protestant and Jansenist Catholic Christianity and Hasidic Judaism have in common Such figures include Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahab Count Nikolaus Zinzendorf Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Jean Jacques Rousseau and Israel Ba al Shem Tov The book is a unique and comprehensive study of the conflicted relationship between the evangelical movements in all three Abrahamic religions and the ideas of the Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment Centered on the 18th century the book reaches back to the third century for precedents and context and forward to the 21st for the legacy of these movements This text appeals to students and researchers in many fields including Philosophy and Religion their histories and World History while also appealing to the interested lay reader
