

The background of the cover features a stylized, high-contrast image of a globe. The globe is primarily yellow and orange, with blue and white areas representing land and water. It is set against a dark purple background with a grid of thin, light-colored lines. A solid blue vertical bar runs along the right edge of the cover. The title is centered in a black rectangular box.

Copyright Office, 1976 Readings in Marketing Principles Ivan Wright, Charles Edward Landon, 1926 The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Brand Management Francesca Dall'Omo Riley, Jaywant Singh, Charles Blankson, 2016-07-15. The amount and range of brand-related literature published in the last fifty years can be overwhelming for brand scholars. This Companion provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of contemporary issues in brand management research and the challenges faced by brands and their managers. Original contributions from an international range of established and emerging scholars from Europe, US, Asia, and Africa provide a diverse range of insights on different areas of branding, reflecting the state of the art and insights into future challenges. Designed to provide not only a comprehensive overview but also to stimulate new insights, this will be an essential resource for researchers, educators, and advanced students in branding and brand management, consumer behaviour, marketing, and advertising.

This collection of classic and contemporary articles provides context for the study of advertising by exploring the historical, economic, and ideological factors that spawned the development of a consumer culture. It begins with articles that take an institutional and historical perspective to provide background for approaching the social and ethical concerns that evolve around advertising. Subsequent sections then address the legal and economic consequences of life in a material culture, the regulation of advertising in a culture that weighs free speech against the needs of society, and the ethics of promoting materialism to consumers. The concluding section includes links to a variety of resources such as
