Berry, 1988-09-30 Originally published in 1988 Human Abilities in Cultural Context constituted a major development in conceptualising and studying human abilities It formed a unique reference frame This study offers a re evaluation of ability theory by the editors S H Irvine and J W Berry and strong individual statements by H J Eysenck Arthur R Jensen Joseph R Royce and Robert J Sternberg who represent markedly different approaches to the measurement of intelligence It also focuses on contexts in which the limits of assessment by psychological tests are defined in minority native groups in North America in migrants to Britain in lower caste enclaves in India among African minorities and among Australian Aborigines Written by long term residents of the regions in question these chapters presented a wealth of fresh data in relation to Western formulations of theory and practice

Indigenous Cognition: Functioning in Cultural Context J.W. Berry, S.H Irvine, E.G. Hunt, 2012-12-06 Cognitive psychology has established itself as one of the major branches of the discipline with much to its credit in such areas as decision making information processing memory and learning Similarly the assessment of cognitive abilities has become one of the hallmarks of the practice of psychology in the school in the factory and in the clinic In recent years these two branches have begun to interact and the two approaches have begun mutually to engage each other A third trend that of cross cultural cognitive psychology has been informed both by experimental cognitive sciences and by the practice of ability assessment see for example Berry and Dasen 1974 Cole and Scribner 1974 However the reverse has not been true the cognitive processes and abilities of much of the world s peoples studied by cross cultural psychologists have not been introduced to psychologists working in these two Western traditions see Irvine and Berry 1987 This volume attempts to begin this introduction by asking the question What is known about the cognitive functions of other peoples that could enable extant psychology to become more comprehensive to attain a universal cognitive psychology Who are these other peoples and by extension what then is indigenous cognition The first question is rather easy to answer but the second is more difficult Cultural Expertise,

Autero,2016-06-10 In Reading the Bible Across Contexts Esa Autero offers a fresh perspective on Luke s poverty texts In addition to an historical reading he conducted an empirical investigation of two Latin American Bible reading groups one poor and the other affluent to shed light on Luke s poverty texts The interaction between historical reading and present day readings demonstrates the impact of socio economic status on biblical hermeneutics and sheds new light on Luke s views on wealth and poverty At the same time Esa Autero critically examines liberation theologian s claim that poor are privileged biblical interpreters Virginia Woolf in Context Bryony Randall,Jane Goldman,2012-12-17 Covering a wide range of historical theoretical critical and cultural contexts this collection studies key issues in contemporary Woolf studies The Future of the Biblical Past Roland Boer,Fernando Segovia,2012-10-30 What does global biblical studies look like in the early decades of the twenty first century and what new directions may be discerned. Profound shifts have taken place over the last few decades as voices from the majority of the globe have begun and continue to reshape and relativize biblical studies. With contributors from Africa, Asia, the Pacific, Europe, Latin America, the Caribbean, and North America, this volume is a truly global work offering surveys and assessments of the current situation and suggestions for the future of biblical criticism in all corners of the world.
