Real Emotional Logic:

Real Emotional Logic: Film and Television Docudrama As Persuasive Practice Steven N. Lipkin, 2002 F Is for Phony Alexandra Juhasz, Jesse Lerner, 2006 Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained. The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film. In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape. The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane, M A S H, This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon. Topics include the docudrama in early cinema, the industrial film as faux documentary, the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films, the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms. The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here An Introduction to Television Studies Jonathan Bignell, Faye Woods, 2022-12-21 This comprehensive textbook now substantially updated for its fourth edition provides students with a framework for understanding the key concepts and main approaches to Television Studies including audiences, representation, industry and global television as well as the analytical study of individual programmes. This new edition reflects the significant changes the television industry is undergoing in the streaming era with an explosion of new content and providers whilst also identifying how many existing practices have endured. The book includes a glossary of key terms with each chapter suggesting further reading. New and updated material includes Chapters on style and form, narrative, industry and representation and identity. Case studies on Bon Appétit's YouTube channel, Insecure, British youth television, ABC and Disney+, fixed rig observational documentary, streaming platforms, use of data to shape audience experience, Chewing Gum, Korean drama and The Marvelous Mrs Maisel. Sections on medical drama, YouTube creators, Skam and scripted format sales, the global spread of streaming platforms, prestige TV and period drama. With individual chapters addressing television style and form, narrative, histories, industries, genres and formats, realities, production, audiences, representation and identity and quality, this book is essential reading for both students and scholars of Television Studies Rethinking Documentary: New Perspectives And Practices Austin, Thomas, de Jong, Wilma, 2008-05-01 Because of the huge boom in documentary making there's been a similar growth in the number of courses in documentary studies. This book brings together some of the leading scholars and practitioners in this area to provide a textbook and research tool Double-Takes David R. Jarraway, 2013-05-25 Over the past forty years Canadian literature has found its way to the silver screen with increasing regularity. Beginning with the adaptation of

Margaret Laurence's A Jest of God to the Hollywood film Rachel Rachel in 1966 Canadian writing would appear to have found a doubly successful life for itself at the movies from the critically acclaimed Kamouraska and The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz in the 1970s through to the award winning Love and Human Remains and The English Patient in the 1990s With the more recent notoriety surrounding the Oscar nominated Away from Her and the screen appearances of The Stone Angel and Fugitive Pieces this seems like an appropriate time for a collection of essays to reflect on the intersection between literary publication in Canada and its various screen transformations This volume discusses and debates several double edged issues the extent to which the literary artefact extends its artfulness to the film artefact the degree to which literary communities stand to gain or lose in contact with film communities and perhaps most of all the measure by which a viable relation between fiction and film can be said to exist in Canada and where that double life precisely manifests itself if at all This book is published in English

New Challenges for Documentary Alan Rosenthal, John Corner, 2005-05-13 The first edition of this book provided a major stimulus for teaching about documentary film and television and fresh encouragement for critical thinking about practice This second edition brings together many new contributions both from academics and filmmakers reflecting shifts both in documentary production itself and in ways of discussing it Once again the emphasis has been on clear and provocative writing sympathetic to the practical challenges of documentary filmmaking but making connections with a range of work in media and communications analysis With its wide range of contributors and the international scope of its agenda this will be essential reading for general filmmakers and documentary students both of academic and practical inclinations
