Real Ideal Using Inspirational Poetry:

Inspiration and Insanity in British Poetry Joseph Crawford, 2019-07-24 This book explores the ways in which poetic inspiration came to be associated with madness in early nineteenth century Britain By examining the works of poets such as Barrett Browning Clare Tennyson Townshend and the Spasmodics in relation to the burgeoning asylum system and shifting medical discourses of the period it investigates the ways in which Britain's post Romantic poets understood their own poetic vocations within a cultural context that insistently linked poetic talent with illness and insanity Joseph Crawford examines the popularity of mesmerism among the writers of the era as an alternative system of medicine that provided a more sympathetic account of the nature of poetic genius and investigates the persistent tension found throughout the literary and medical writings of the period between the Romantic ideal of the poet as a transcendent visionary genius and the medico psychological conception of poets as mere case studies in abnormal neurological development Philosophy, Literature and the Human Good Michael Weston, 2003-09-02 In this provocative new examination of the philosophical moral and religious significance of literature Michael Weston explores the role of literature in both analytic and continental traditions He initiates a dialogue between them and investigates the growing importance of these issues for major contemporary thinkers Each chapter explores a philosopher or literary figure who has written on the relation between literature and the good life such as Derrida Kierkegaard Murdoch and Blanchot Challenging and insightful Philosophy Literature and the Human Good is ideal for all students of philosophy and literature Literary Criticism Dr. R. P. Tiwari, 2025-04-02

Comprehensive guide to Literary Criticism covering key thinkers from Plato to I A Richards Includes each author's mission major works critical contributions and evaluations ideal for literature students and exam aspirants seeking clarity on classical to modern critical thought The Pictorial History of England George Lillie Craik, Charles MacFarlane, 1843 Good
