Real Mother A Novel:

The Russian Revolutionary Novel Richard Freeborn, 1985-02-28 Professor Freeborn's book is an attempt to identify and define the evolution of a particular kind of novel in Russian and Soviet literature the revolutionary novel This genre is a uniquely Russian phenomenon and one that is of central importance in Russian literature The study begins with a consideration of Turgenev's masterpiece Fathers and Children and traces the evolution of the revolutionary novel through to its most important development a century later in Pasternak's Doctor Zhivago and the emergence of a dissident literature in the Soviet Union Professor Freeborn examines the particular phases of the genre's development and in particular the development after 1917 the early fiction which explored the relationship between revolution and instinct such as Pilnyak's The Naked Year the first attempts at mythmaking in Leonov's The Badgers and Furmanov's Chapayev the next phase in which novelists turned to the investigation of ideas exemplified most notably by Zamyatin's We the resumption of the classical approach in such works as Olesha's Envy which explore the interaction between the individual and society and finally the appearance of the revolutionary epic in Gorky's The Life of Klim Samgin Sholokhov's Quiet Flows the Don and Alexey Tolstoy's The Road to Calvary Professor Freeborn also examines the way this kind of novel has undergone change in response to revolutionary change and he shows how an important feature of this process has been the implicit assumption that the revolutionary novel is distinguished by its right to pass an objective independent judgement on revolution and the revolutionary image of man This is a comprehensive and challenging study of a uniquely Russian tradition of writing which draws on a great range of novels many of them little known in the West As with other titles in this series all quotations have been translated

The Future of Humans and Emotional Machines Elena Giannoulis, 2025-07-18 This book explores human machine interaction in Japan providing a new focus on how and in what form people build affective bonds to new technologies To gain insights into the feelings identities fears and desires of people in our contemporary society this book brings together perspectives from Japanese studies cultural and literary studies anthropology robotics philosophy and game studies Through these lenses it reveals how narratives about machines are not merely reflections of technological capabilities but when it comes to emotional attachment are deeply embedded in cultural practices and social values In addition to discussions by leading scholars in the field from around the world this book includes two original literary contributions by award winning Japanese authors Yoko Tawada and Keiichirō Hirano as well as interviews with Japanese roboticists providing readers with the rare opportunity to learn about the motivations and inspirations behind technological advances in human machine interaction Shedding light on the mutual influence of academics producers and artists in the field of the attachment to new technologies and encouraging a dialogue between them this book will be a valuable resource for scholars and students of Japanese studies cultural and literary studies and anthropology The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives

The Greatest Romance Novels of Grace Livingston Hill Grace Livingston Hill, 2023-12-24

In The Greatest Romance Novels of Grace Livingston Hill readers are invited to immerse themselves in a timeless collection of narratives that encapsulate the essence of early 20th century romantic literature. Hill masterfully weaves themes of love, faith, and moral integrity through her characters, often set against the backdrop of idyllic small town America. Her literary style is characterized by a rich descriptive prose that evokes a profound sense of nostalgia and a sincere exploration of the human condition. The collection offers a window into the societal norms and challenges of her time, inviting readers to reflect on the enduring power of romance intertwined with spiritual ideals and personal growth. Grace Livingston Hill, often hailed as the Queen of Christian Romance, emerged as a pioneering voice in the genre during the 1910s, influenced by her own experiences of faith and devotion. Raised in a devout family, Hill's writing was shaped by her commitment to portraying the interplay between love and moral values. Her ability to resonate with readers' emotions and depict relatable characters stems from her profound understanding of human relationships and the societal landscapes of her era. This collection is highly recommended for readers seeking heartfelt stories that champion love's transformative power. Hill's novels are not only entertaining but also serve as a reflection on the virtues of compassion and integrity. Lovers of classic romance will find solace in these pages, making it a cherished addition to any literary collection. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works, unifying features, themes, or stylistic evolutions. A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era, social currents, cultural trends, and key events that underpin their creation. A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts, helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists. A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection, tying the stories together while spotlighting the different works' strengths. Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author's overarching message, inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts. Lastly, our hand-picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points, serving as touchstones for the collection's central themes.
