Roma Migration In Europe Cases Studies:

Roma Migration in Europe Will Guy, Zdenek Uherek, 2004 Articles resulting from a round table held by the Institute of Ethnology of the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic in Prague 2000 Roma Migrants in the European Union Can Yildiz, Nicholas De Genova, 2020-05-21 This book situates Roma mobility as a critical vantage point for migration studies in Europe focusing on questions about Europe European ness and EU ropean citizenship through the critical lens of Roma racialisation marginalisation securitisation and criminalisation and the dynamics of Roma mobility within and across the space of Europe Enabled primarily through ethnographic research with diverse Roma communities across the heterogeneous geography of Europe the contributions to this collection are concerned with the larger politics of mobility as a constitutive feature of the socio political formation of the EU Foregrounding the experiences and perspectives of Roma living and working outside of their nation states of origin or ostensible citizenship the book seeks to elucidate wider inequalities and hierarchies at stake in the ongoing re racialisation of both Roma migrants and migrants in general Showcasing political economic legal and socio historical criticism this book will be of interest to those studying race and racialisation in Europe mobility and migration into and within Europe and those studying the mobility of the Roma people in particular This book was originally published as a special issue of the Social Identities journal Global Connections and Emerging Inequalities in Europe Deema Kaneff, Frances Pine, 2011-02-15 This book explores connections between poverty and migration in the context of the expansion of neoliberalism in Europe The last decade has witnessed a massive movement of people in response to rising inequalities as a result of political changes and economic reforms implemented across the continent As people seek new opportunities movement itself becomes part of the process of generating new inequalities The chapters in this volume provide vivid examples of local participation in such global processes Exemplarische Forschungsfelder aus 25 Jahren Zeitgeschichte an der Universität Graz Helmut Konrad, Stefan Benedik, 2010 Continues Mapping contemporary history Zeitgeschichte im Diskurs Constructing Roma Migrants Tina Magazzini, Stefano Piemontese, 2019-02-22 This open access book presents a cross disciplinary insight and policy analysis into the effects of European legal and political frameworks on the life of Roma migrants in Europe It outlines the creation and implementation of Roma policies at the European level provides a systematic understanding of identity based exclusion and explores concrete case studies that reveal how integration and immigration policies work in practice The book also shows how the Roma example might be employed in tackling the governance implications of our increasingly complex societies and assesses its potential and limitations for integration policies of vulnerable groups such as refugees and other discriminated minorities As such the book will be of interest to academics practitioners policy makers and a wider academic community working in migration refugee poverty and integration issues more broadly The Routledge History of East Central Europe Since 1700 Irina Livezeanu, Arpad von Klimó, 2017-03-16 Covers territory from Russia in the east to Germany and Austria in the west exploring the origins and evolution of modernity in this region Provided by the publisher Remigration to Post-Socialist Europe Caroline Hornstein Tomic, Robert Pichler, Sarah Scholl-Schneider, 2018 Returning migrants have been involved in post socialist transformation processes all across Eastern and Southeastern Europe Engaged in politics the economy science and education arts and civil society return migrants have often exerted crucial influence on state and nation building processes and on social and cultural transformations However remigration not only comprises stories of achievements but equally those of failed integration marginalization non participation and lost potential these are mostly stories untold The contributions to this volume shed light on processes of return migration to various Eastern and Southeastern European countries from multidisciplinary perspectives Particular attention is paid to anthropological approaches that aim to understand the complexities of return migration from individual perspectives Ethnic Conflict in the Post-Soviet World: Case Studies and Analysis Leokadia Drobizheva, Rose Gottemoeller, Catherine McArdle Kelleher, Lee Walker, 2015-04-08 Presents 16 case studies of ethnic conflict in the post Soviet world The book places ethnic conflict in the context of imperial collapse democratization and state building Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration Elena Marushiakova, 2021-02-03 This collection was inspired by the international conference Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration organized by the Balkan Ethnology Department of the Ethnographic Institute and Museum at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and realized as project of the European Commission Jean Monnet Action Program for the support of Study and Research Centers The book opens a debate on the changing notions of identity in the region of Central and Eastern Europe on the base of analysis of social developments influenced by EU accession and EU integration process The most important aspect is the analysis of processes of breaking up the borders of national identity and transition towards new forms of transnational identities and emerging of consciousness of All European unity The book has a dual focus on general topics related to the study of national and transnational identities and on the process of European integration It brings together the work of researchers not only from different parts of Europe from France to Russia but from USA and Asia too This book is a starting point for East West discussion and brings new knowledge that will be an invaluable contribution to the common European research area Economic and Social Perspectives on European Migration Francesca Fauri, Debora Mantovani, Donatella Strangio, 2020-12-29 This book addresses a wide range of migration related issues in the European context and examines the socioeconomic consequences of migratory flows throughout Europe focusing on a number of emblematic European countries The book is divided into three parts The first part deals with the tension between migrants and their integration processes in the receiving country which is deeply influenced by the attitude of the local population and the different approach to highly and less skilled immigrants The second part analyses the impact of migration on the economic structure of the receiving country while the third part explores the varying degree of immigrants socioeconomic integration in the country of destination The book offers an essential interdisciplinary contribution to the issue of migration and provides readers with a better understanding of the effects that different forms of migration have had and will continue to exert on economic and social change in host countries It also examines migration policy issues and builds on historical and empirical case studies with policy recommendations on labour market integration and welfare policy issues The book is addressed to a wide audience including researchers academics and students of economics sociology politics and history as well as government EU officials working on migration topics

The Rights of Roma in European Courts Kristin Henrard, Lilla Farkas, 2025-05-26 The abundance of Roma rights cases before international and European courts reflects the Roma's systemic marginalization as well as their resolve to push the boundaries of human rights law The Roma have increasingly raised concerns through strategic litigation urging the courts to develop their jurisprudence and adjust the scope of human rights applications This edited volume examines these cases exploring the extent to which strategic litigation can and does push the boundaries of human rights Adopting a long needed yet untested approach the volume situates Roma rights within the broader human rights edifice and identifies its key contributions The volume focuses on the quasi jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights the Court of Justice of the EU and the European Committee of Social Rights with several chapters also drawing parallels with jurisdictions beyond Europe Its contributing authors span a broad range of disciplines including human rights law political science climate justice and ethnology Combining rich doctrinal and socio legal analysis The Rights of Roma in European Courts is an unparalleled resource for scholars and practitioners seeking to understand the systemic discrimination faced by the Roma and explore legal solutions for countering it

Open Borders, Unlocked Cultures Yaron Matras, Daniele Leggio, 2017-07-28 The book examines some of the dilemmas surrounding Europe's open borders migrations and identities through the prism of the Roma Europe's most dispersed and socially marginalised population The volume challenges some of the myths surrounding the Roma as a problem population and places the focus instead on the context of European policy and identity debates It comes to the conclusion that the migration of Roma and the constitution of their communities is shaped by European policy as much as and often more so than by the cultural traits of the Roma themselves The chapters compare case studies of Roma migrants in Spain Italy France and Britain and the impact of migration on the origin communities in Romania The study combines historical and ethnographic methods with insights from migration studies drawing on a unique multi site collaborative project that for the first time gave Roma participants a voice in shaping research into their communities Chapters 1 and 7 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Children and Youths' Migration in a Global Landscape Adrienne Lee Atterberry, Derrace Garfield McCallum, Siqi Tu, Amy Lutz, 2022-05-24 This volume contains an Open Access Chapter Children and Youths Migration in a Global Landscape interrogates how transnational mobility shapes the lives of the relatively young and addresses questions that encourage us to consider what it means to be a transnationally mobile child or youth in the 21st century

Extending Protection to Migrant Populations in Europe Roberta Medda-Windischer, Caitlin Boulter, Tove H. Malloy, 2019-07-16 This comprehensive and innovative volume focuses on the usefulness and relevance of extending the scope of protections already in place for national minorities old minorities to migrant populations new minorities in Europe Delving into a highly relevant but under researched issue the book examines the feasibility of expanding the system of protection for national minorities to migrant groups as well as considering issues of diversity security socio economic concerns and identity Taking a multidisciplinary perspective and combining insights from political science law sociology and anthropology it asks the central question of how far the extension of policies and rights currently specific to national minorities is conceptually meaningful and beneficial to the integration of new minorities In doing so it questions the feasibility and appropriateness of extending the scope of the protections already in place for national minorities to other categories of population This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners of European Union politics migration studies minority studies and more broadly of sociology international law and human rights

The Irregularization of Migration in Contemporary Europe Yolande Jansen, Robin Celikates, Joost de Bloois, 2014-12-12 Working from an interdisciplinary perspective that draws on the social sciences legal studies and the humanities this book investigates the causes and effects of the extremities experienced by migrants Firstly the volume analyses the development and political cultural conditions of current practices and discourses of bordering illegality and irregularization Secondly it focuses on the varieties of irregularization and on the diversity of the fields techniques and effects involved in this variegation Thirdly the book examines examples of resistance that migrants and migratory cultures have developed in order to deal with the predicaments they face The book uses the European Union as its case study exploring practices and discourses of bordering border control and migration regulation But the significance of this field extends well beyond the European context as the monitoring of Europe s borders increasingly takes place on a global scale and reflects an internationally increasing trend

The Routledge Handbook of East European Politics Adam Fagan, Petr Kopecký, 2017-08-15 The Routledge Handbook of East European Politics is an authoritative overview that will help a wide readership develop an understanding of the region in all its political economic and social complexity Including Central Europe the Baltic republics South Eastern Europe and the Western Balkans as well as all the countries of the former Soviet Union it is unrivalled in breadth and depth affording a comprehensive overview of Eastern European politics provided by leading experts in the fields of comparative politics international relations and public administration Through a series of cutting edge articles it seeks to explain and understand patterns of Eastern European politics today The Routledge Handbook of East European Politics will be a key reference point both for advanced level students developing knowledge about the subject researchers producing new material in the area and those interested and working in the fields of East European Politics Russian Politics EU Politics and more broadly in European Politics Comparative Politics

Democratization Studies and International Relations Non-Western Identity Byron G. Adams, Fons J. R. van de Vijver, 2022-02-02 Identity is a construct strongly rooted and still predominantly studied in Western or WEIRD Western educated industrialized rich and democratic contexts e g North American and Western European Only recently has there been more of a conscious effort to study identity in non Western or non WEIRD contexts This edited volume investigates identity from primarily a non Western perspective by studying non Western contexts and non Western minority or immigrant groups living in Western contexts The contributions a examine different aspects of identity e g personal identity social identity online identity as either independent or interrelated constructs b consider the associations of these constructs with aspects of intergroup relations acculturative processes and or psychological well being c document the advancement in research on identity in underrepresented groups contexts and regions such as Africa Asia Eastern Europe the Middle East and South America and d evaluate different approaches to the study of identity and the implications thereof This book is intended for cultural or cross cultural academics practitioners educators social workers postgraduate students undergraduate students and scholars interested in studying identity It provides insight into how identity in non Western groups and contexts may both be informed by and may inform Western theoretical perspectives Crime Prevention, Migration Control and Surveillance Practices Veronika Nagy, 2018-10-03 EU expansion has stoked fears that criminals from the East may abuse freedom of movement to exploit the benefit systems of richer states This book examines the way in which physical state borders are increasingly being replaced by internal border controls in the form of state bureaucracies as a means of regulating westward migration The work examines the postmodern effect of globalisation and how ontological anxieties contribute to securitisation and social sorting in Western countries It discusses the changes in control societies and how targeted surveillance as a geopolitical tool leads to new digitalised mechanisms of population selection The book presents a casestudy of Roma migrants in the UK to examine the coping strategies adopted by those targeted The book also critically evaluates the limitations of digitalised bureaucratic systems and the dangers of reliance on virtual data and selection methods The Challenges of European Governance in the Age of Economic Stagnation, Immigration, and Refugees Henry F. Carey, 2016-12-20 This book examines the political and legal challenges of regional governance of the 28 countries of the European Union and the 48 in the Council of Europe The contributions dilemmas and moral hazards from this record of nearly seven decades of regional inter governmental institutions has kept the peace but produced episodes of crisis from overstressing jurisdictions thematically and geographically Polarization between nationalist and integrative forces has displaced the idealistic aspirations of prior decades to build the rule of law and deter violence Academics and policy makers will learn from the various legal and political efforts to integrate supranational and inter governmental agencies with national political systems Foreigners, Refugees or Minorities? Didier Bigo, 2016-04-15 When immigration policy and the treatment of Roma collide in international relations there are surprising consequences which are revelatory of the underlying tensions between internal and external policies in the European Union This book examines the relationship of citizenship ethnicity and international relations and how these three aspects of the State its people and its neighbours relate to one another It studies the wide issue of international relations citizenship and minority discrimination through the lens of the case study of European Roma who seek refugee status in Canada on account of their persecution in Europe The volume assesses the relationships among citizenship state protection and persecution and minority status and how they can intersect with and destabilize foreign affairs The central background to the book is the European treatment of Roma their linkages with visa and asylum policies and their human rights repercussions The various contributions reveal how modern liberal democracies can find themselves in contradictory positions concerning their citizens when these are looking for protection abroad and foreigners in search of international protection as a consequence of visa and pre border surveillance policies and practices
