Roman and Christian Imperialism John Westbury-Jones,1939      Roman and Christian Imperialism, Reissued J. Westbury-Jones,1971      Acts of the Apostles and the Rhetoric of Roman Imperialism Drew W. Billings,2017

Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E Rock,2017-05-25 Ian E Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world      Roman Imperialism Sir John Robert Seeley,1871      Roman Defeat, Christian Response, and the Literary Construction of the Jew David M. Olster,2015-09-28 Olster explores Byzantine Christian reactions to the catastrophic Persian and Arab invasions challenging long held assumptions that divided religious from secular literature and exempted religion from contemporary social political and intellectual discourse      Christianity, Empire, and the Making of Religion in Late Antiquity Jeremy M. Schott,2013-04-23 In Christianity Empire and the Making of Religion in Late Antiquity Jeremy M Schott examines the ways in which conflicts between Christian and pagan intellectuals over religious ethnic and cultural identity contributed to the transformation of Roman imperial rhetoric and ideology in the early fourth century C E During this turbulent period which began with Diocletian's persecution of the Christians and ended with Constantine's assumption of sole rule and the consolidation of a new Christian empire Christian apologists and anti Christian polemicists launched a number of literary salvos in a battle for the minds and souls of the empire Schott focuses on the works of the Platonist philosopher and anti Christian polemicist Porphyry of Tyre and his Christian respondents the Latin rhetorician Lactantius Eusebius bishop of Caesarea and the emperor Constantine Previous scholarship has tended to narrate the Christianization of the empire in terms of a new religion's penetration and conquest of classical culture and society The present work in contrast seeks to suspend the static essentializing conceptualizations of religious identity that lie behind many studies of social and political change in late antiquity in order to investigate the processes through which Christian and pagan identities were constructed Drawing on the insights of postcolonial discourse analysis Schott argues that the production of Christian identity and in turn the construction of a Christian imperial discourse were intimately and inseparably linked to the broader politics of Roman imperialism      The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism R. S. Sugirtharajah,2023 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism is a comprehensive treatment of a relatively new form of scholarship Generally speaking postcolonialism aims to critique and dismantle hegemonic worldviews and power structures while giving voice to previously marginalized peoples and systems of thought This approach has inevitably engaged with the text and reception of the Bible a scripture that Western colonizers introduced to and often imposed upon their colonial subjects With a globally diverse list of contributors the Handbook aims to cover the perspective and context of the authors of the Bible as well as the modern experiences of imperialism resistance decolonization and nationalism

Primitive Catholicism Pierre Batiffol, 1911 Survivals in Christianity Charles James Wood, 1893 Desiring Martyrs Harry O. Maier, Katharina Waldner, 2020-12-16 Martyrs create space and time through the actions they take the fate they suffer the stories they prompt the cultural narratives against which they take place and the retelling of their tales in different places and contexts The title Desiring Martyrs is meant in two senses First it refers to protagonists and antagonists of the martyrdom narratives who as literary characters seek martyrs and the way they inscribe certain kinds of cultural and social desire Second it describes the later celebration of martyrs via narrative martyrdom acts monuments inscriptions martyria liturgical commemoration pilgrimage etc Here there is a cultural desire to tell or remember a particular kind of story about the past that serves particular communal interests and goals By applying the spatial turn to these ancient texts the volume seeks to advance a still nascent social geographical understanding of emergent Christian and Jewish martyrdom It explores how martyr narratives engage pre existing time space configurations to result in new appropriations of earlier traditions

Orality, Literacy, and Colonialism in Antiquity Jonathan A. Draper, 2004 Essays in this collection explore the complex relationship between text and orality in colonial situations of antiquity from Homer Plato and Mithras to the Hebrew and Christian scriptures and rabbinic tradition Orality could be a deliberate decision by highly literate people who chose not to put certain things in writing either to exercise control over the tradition or to preserve the secrecy of ritual performance Exploring both theoretical issues and historical questions the book demonstrates the role of text as a form of imperial control over against oral tradition as a means of resistance by the marginalized peasantry or marginalized elite of Israel and the early Church Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org Survivals in Christianity: studies in the theology of divine immanence, lectures Charles James Wood, 1893 Reading, Writing, and Bookish Circles in the Ancient Mediterranean Jonathan D.H. integrating conversations across disciplines especially focusing on classical studies and Jewish and Christian studies this volume addresses several imbalances in scholarship on reading and textual activity in the ancient Mediterranean Contributors intentionally place Jewish Christian Roman Greek and other reading circles back into their encompassing historical context avoiding subdivisions along modern subject lines divisions still bearing marks of cultural and ideological interests In their examination contributors avoid dwelling upon traditional methodological debates over orality vs literacy and social classifications of literacy instead turning their attention to the social historical groups of people circles and networks strata and class scribal culture material culture epigraphic and papyrological evidence functions and types of literacy and the social relationships that all of these entail Overall the volume contributes to an emerging and important interdisciplinary collaboration between specialists in ancient literacy encouraging future discussion between two currently divided fields
