Powers,2011-06-03 The Islamic claim to supersede Judaism and Christianity is embodied in the theological assertion that the office of prophecy is hereditary but that the line of descent ends with Muhammad who is the seal or last of the prophets While Muhammad had no natural sons who reached the age of maturity he is said to have adopted a man named Zayd and mutual rights of inheritance were created between the two Zayd b Muhammad also known as the Beloved of the Messenger of God was the first adult male to become a Muslim and the only Muslim apart from Muhammad to be named in the Qur an But if prophecy is hereditary and Muhammad has a son David Powers argues then he might not be the Last Prophet Conversely if he is the Last Prophet he cannot have a son In Muhammad Is Not the Father of Any of Your Men Powers contends that a series of radical moves were made in the first two centuries of Islamic history to ensure Muhammad s position as the Last Prophet He focuses on narrative accounts of Muhammad s repudiation of Zayd of his marriage to Zayd s former wife and of Zayd s martyrdom in battle against the Byzantines Powers argues that theological imperatives drove changes in the historical record and led to the abolition or reform of key legal institutions In what is likely to be the most controversial aspect of his book he offers compelling physical evidence that the text of the Qur'an itself was altered Roman Transliteration of the Holy Qur'ān, 2010 Islam in the West Abe W. Ata, Jan A. Ali, 2018-08-28 The bombings in New York and Washington in 2001 and subsequent terrorist attacks in different countries of the West have led to fast changing socio cultural and political contexts where Islam has been depicted as a global threat The meaning of being a Muslim has undergone rapid transformation with the interplay of perceptions and misperceptions impacted by for instance the Iranian Revolution of 1978 9 the Lockerbie bombing in 1988 the Gulf War of 1990 1 and the clash of civilizations thesis propagated by Samuel Huntington in 1993 This book examines the way Muslims and mainstream societies in the West perceive each other by taking into account themes like cultural pluralism media religious education interfaith dialogue and so on It argues that Muslims are not defined solely by their faith but as an emerging group which is self critical reflective and focused on clearing the misconceptions associated with their identity Further it posits that Westerners who are more knowledgeable about Muslims usually express positive opinions about Islam thereby arguing that the knowledge about and attitudes towards Islam are interrelated The Glorious Qur'an, 1994-07-01 Muslim, Christian, and Jew David Liepert, 2010 Virtually every other religious book portrays the act of believing the decision a believer makes to accept that his or her own religion's particular assumptions and explanations are true as if it is a good thing Frankly I think believing is dangerous The thrust of my argument is simple All of us think that our religion is good and that those in apparent and often politically motivated opposition to it are bad But the real truth is that all of our religions are equally guilty of being used to promote violence and thanks to centuries of political manipulation that have distorted the way we read our holy books all of us are equally guilty of not following what our religions really say The later chapters of this book explore belief and human nature in a new light to explain how Freud's theories of the subconscious and quantum physics model of the subatomic universe offer some of the best proof we have that God exists show us a way to restore religion to its rightful role in our lives and our world and conclude that we're all a lot closer to where we should be than we think Ta'arruf as a Philosophy of Muslim Education Yusef Waghid, 2021-01-14 In this book Yusef Waghid constitutes his argument in defence of ta'arruf associational knowing as an expanded conception of ta'dib good education In the first part of the book he elucidates Abu Bakr Effendi's position on a Muslim educational philosophy which can be couched as rational pragmatic and critical As a backdrop to this in the second part of the book he argues for a notion of Muslim educational philosophy according to ta'arruf associational knowing on the basis that it enhances the notion of an autonomous self and its capabilities summons different people to engage in deliberative encounters and provokes the self to be reflectively open towards that which remains in becoming This leads him to posit that ta'arruf associational knowing has the potential to cultivate humanity His notion of ta'arruf extends practices of tarbiyyah rearing ta'lim learning and ta'dib good education associated with Muslim educational philosophy The Noble Quran: Transliteration in
