Roman Painting Amedeo Maiuri, 1953 Painting, Ethics, and Aesthetics in Rome Nathaniel B. Jones, 2019-01-24 In the first centuries BCE and CE Roman wall painters frequently placed representations of works of art especially panel paintings within their own mural compositions Nathaniel B Jones argues that the depiction of panel painting within mural ensembles functioned as a meta pictorial reflection on the practice and status of painting itself This phenomenon provides crucial visual evidence for both the reception of Greek culture and the interconnected ethical and aesthetic values of art in the Roman world Roman meta pictures this book reveals not only navigated social debates on the production and consumption of art but also created space on the Roman wall for new modes of expression relating to pictorial genres the role of medium in artistic practice and the history of painting Richly illustrated the volume will be important for anyone interested in the social ethical and aesthetic dimensions of artworks in the ancient Mediterranean and beyond

Greek and Roman Painting and the Digital Humanities Marie-Claire Beaulieu, Valérie Toillon, 2021-11-29 This volume is a groundbreaking discussion of the role of digital media in research on ancient painting and a deep reflection on the effectiveness of digital media in opening the field to new audiences The study of classical art always oscillates between archaeology and classics between the study of ancient texts and archaeological material For this reason it is often difficult to collect all the data to have access to both types of information on an equal basis The increasing development of digital collections and databases dedicated to both archaeological material and ancient texts is a direct response to this problem The book's central theme is the role of the digital humanities especially digital collections such as the Digital Milliet in the study of ancient Greek and Roman painting Part 1 focuses on the transition between the original print version of the Recueil Milliet and its digital incarnation Part 2 addresses the application of digital tools to the analysis of ancient art Part 3 focuses on ancient wall painting The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history classics archaeology and digital humanities

The Language of Images in Roman Art Tonio Hölscher, 2004-11-18 This book first published in 2004 develops a theory for the understanding of Roman pictorial art By treating Roman art as a semantic system it establishes a connection between artistic forms and the ideological messages contained within The history of Roman art traditionally followed the model of a sequence of stylistic phases affecting the works of their era in the manner of a uniform Zeitgeist By contrast the author shows different stylistic forms being used for different themes and messages The reception of Greek models a key phenomenon of Roman art thus appear in a new light The formulations of specific messages are established from Greek art types of different eras serving to express Roman ideological values classical forms for the grandeur of the state Hellenistic forms for the struggling effort of warfare In this way a conceptual and comprehensible pictorial language arose uniting the multicultural population of the Roman state

Borg, 2019-11-04 A Companion to Roman Art encompasses various artistic genres ancient contexts and modern approaches for a comprehensive guide to Roman art Offers comprehensive and original essays on the study of Roman art Contributions from distinguished scholars with unrivalled expertise covering a broad range of international approaches Focuses on the socio historical aspects of Roman art covering several topics that have not been presented in any detail in English Includes both close readings of individual art works and general discussions Provides an overview of main aspects of the subject and an introduction to current debates in the field The Romans Kevin Murray McGeough, 2004-11-23 So many myths and legends So many senators and Caesars So many documents archaeological finds movie made misconceptions and scholarly histories With so much information available on the civilization of ancient Rome and more discoveries happening all the time where do you start The Romans New Perspectives is the ideal starting point for investigating this extraordinary civilization its remarkable rise and decline the scope of its power and wealth the details of everyday life for its people and its signature contributions to human culture food architecture government public works art and more The Romans takes readers from the establishment of the monarchy circa 753 BCE through the rise of the republic circa 509 BCE the imperial period and ultimately to the fall of the empire and the coronation of the barbarian king Odoacer It is an engaging account of current thinking on Roman life and culture informed by a number of dramatic recent discoveries The book provides a coherent introduction to the field while pointing the way toward further reading on specific topics and personalities Art in the Hellenistic Age Jerome Jordan Pollitt, 1986-06-12 This 1986 book is an interpretative history of Greek art during the Hellenistic period The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students
