

“Romance [literature] gets criticized for being repetitive — as if repetition is not the way we nourish our bodies and souls. Meals are repetitive: You have to keep making them and eating them and then making and eating them again. Song lyrics repeat every time a chorus comes back around. And when you love someone you don’t tell them once and then never speak of it again. You tell them over and over, because each iteration of those three words sustains their truth — like fresh water soaking into the roots of a living tree.”
