American Representations of Post-Communism Andaluna Borcila, 2014-07-11 With the televised events of 1989, territories of Eastern and Central Europe that had been marked as impenetrable and inaccessible to the Western gaze exploded into visibility. As the narratives of the Cold War crumbled, new narratives emerged and new geographies were produced on and by American television. Using an understudied archive of American news broadcasts and tracing their flashes and echoes through travel guides and narratives of return written by Eastern European Americans, this book explores American ways of seeing and mapping communism's disintegration and the narratives articulated around post-communist sites and subjects.

Witchcraft in Romania Ioan Pop-Curşeu, Ştefana Pop-Curşeu, 2022-11-30 This book provides a history of witchcraft in the territories that compose contemporary Romania with a focus on the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries. The first part presents aspects of earthly justice, religious and secular, analysing the codes of law, trials and verdicts, and underlining the differences between Transylvania on one hand and Moldavia and Wallachia on the other. The second part is concerned with divine justice, describing apocalyptic texts that talk about the pains of witches in hell but also the ensembles of religious painting where, in vast compositions of the Last Judgment, various punishments for the sin of witchcraft are imagined.

Visual Rhetorics of Communist Romania Adriana Cordali, 2023-01-10 Visual Rhetorics of Communist Romania: Life under the Totalitarian Gaze offers personal accounts and theoretical insight into the Cold War era when little information about life beyond the Iron Curtain could transpire to the West. Adriana Cordali develops a unique visual rhetorical theory for analyzing communist totalitarian propaganda and the resistance to it and reveals the deliberate strategic visibilities of the rhetoric of power engaged in. Building upon the local history, ideology and politics of the regime imposed after WWII, she identifies propaganda's rhetorical features, visual tropes and symbols and examines striking photographs and print materials from Ceauşescu's regime (1966-1989) and the time of regime change (1989-1990) as well as an award-winning Romanian film that depicts women's life at the time. Converging visual rhetoric and culture with history and politics, Visual Rhetorics of Communist Romania is a first book of this kind and will interest readers of rhetoric and communication, visual rhetoric and political discourse in the region.

Art, Religion and Resistance in (Post-)Communist Romania Maria Alina Asavei, 2020-10-22 This book illuminates the interconnections between politics and religion through the lens of artistic production, exploring how art inspired by religion functioned as a form of resistance directed against both Romanian national communism (1960-1989) and latterly consumerist society and its global market. It investigates the critical, tactical and subversive employments of religious motifs and themes in contemporary art pieces that confront the religious affair in post-communist Romania. In doing so, it addresses a key gap in previous scholarship which has paid little attention to the relationship between religious art and political resistance in communist Central and South East Europe.
