the Woman Professional in the Long Nineteenth Century Kyriaki Hadjiafxendi, Patricia Zakreski, 2016-05-13 Over the course of the nineteenth century women in Britain participated in diverse and prolific forms of artistic labour As they created objects and commodities that blurred the boundaries between domestic and fine art production they crafted subjectivities for themselves as creative workers By bringing together work by scholars of literature painting music craft and the plastic arts this collection argues that the constructed and contested nature of the female artistic professional was a notable aspect of debates about aesthetic value and the impact of industrial technologies All the essays in this volume set up a productive inter art dialogue that complicates conventional binary divisions such as amateur and professional public and private artistry and industry in order to provide a more nuanced understanding of the relationship between gender artistic labour and creativity in the period Ultimately how women faced the pragmatics of their own creative labour as they pursued vocations trades and professions in the literary marketplace and related art industries reveals the different ideological positions surrounding the transition of women from industrious amateurism to professional artistry

Visual Merchandising Louisa Iarocci, 2017-07-05 Situated at the crossroads of visual culture and consumerism this essay collection examines visual merchandising as both a business and an art It seeks to challenge that scholarly ambivalence that often celebrates the spectacle but denies the agenda of consumerism The volume considers strategies in the imaging of selling from the mid nineteenth century to the present in terms of the visual interaction that occurs between the commodity and the consumer and between body and space Under the categories of Promotion Product and Place contributors to the volume examine the strategies in the presentation of retail goods and environments that range from print advertising to product design to store display and architecture

Visual Merchandising The Image of Selling is located directly at the nexus of business practice and cultural myth where the spectator never loses sight of their status as buyer and the object of desire is always still a commodity

Light Touches Alice Barnaby, 2016-11-10 Light Touches Cultural Practices of Illumination 1800 1900 explores how urban lives in the nineteenth century were increasingly touched by innovations in the technologies and aesthetics of illumination Dramatic changes in qualities of light and darkness became acutely palpable to the human sensorium using seeing feeling and being in light were now matters of intense personal and cultural concern Light gave meaningful vitality to the period s material culture and light itself became something to be perceptually consumed Over the course of six chapters Alice Barnaby traces how light was used in amateur artistic pastimes interior design and clothing fashions spectacular public amusements volatile street demonstrations and art gallery designs From these previously unexplored examples a more complex history of light in the period emerges Society s fascination with illumination its desire to work with it and make meaning from it gave rise to a distinctly new set of cultural practices Through these practices unexpected discoveries about the modern world were revealed Light proved to be instrumental in everyday acts of experimentation and imaginative enquiry Barnaby offers an intervention into the dominant scholarly narrative of the nineteenth century which traditionally reads modernity as synonymous with the formation of a spectacular disembodied visuality Light Touches in contrast returns vision to the body and foregrounds the actively felt as well as seen sensation of light In coming to understand these cultural practices of illumination the book reconsiders many assumptions about nineteenth century modernity
