Geography, Urbanisation and Settlement Patterns in the Roman Near East Henry Innes MacAdam, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 This volume focuses on the Roman provinces of Syria and Arabia above all the lands now within Lebanon Syria and Jordan The first articles look at questions of geography cartography and toponymy particularly in Strabo Pliny and Ptolemy The following sections are concerned with settlement patterns and urban development in the region In the Roman and early Byzantine periods the inland areas underwent a gradual transformation from a semi sedentary lightly populated and predominantly rural region to one of large cities and a network of prosperous socially sophisticated villages linked by a network of roads That change is documented by a wealth of epigraphy from both the urban communities and their outlying settlements the subject of several articles By the 4th century too Christianity had become the dominant religion and remained such until the arrival of Islam

Church and Culture in Early Medieval Armenia Nina G. Garsoïan, 2024-12-11 The articles here aim to develop and expand Professor Garsoian's earlier research on the bilateral influences on Early Christian Armenia between Byzantium and the Sasanians On the one hand they continue her examination of Armenia's essentially Iranian society and institutions in the 4th 7th centuries on the other they are directed to an investigation of its autocephalous Church This maintained relations with the Antiochene Christological school it shared with the Church of Persia longer than has been generally admitted but simultaneously brought about an ideological transformation through which Christianity came to define the Armenian identity in the national tradition

The Processes of Politics and the Rule of Law Peter Linehan, 2024-10-28 This third volume of essays by Peter Linehan deals with matters of perennial interest to all historians of medieval Church and State and in particular to students of the history of medieval Spain and Portugal and of the papacy in the 12th and 13th centuries Amongst those discussed and explored are the question of feudalism in the 11th and 12th century the rise and fall of a royal capital the city of León the ritual of king making focusing on Castile and Portugal the interplay of royal influence and papal authority and the impact of the mendicant orders A previously unpublished study provides a cautionary tale of a particular bishop in politics Four essays are devoted to the investigation of individuals and issues central to the history of late 13th century papal Rome while two look at medieval and modern historiography

The Jews in the Roman Empire Alfredo Mordechai Rabello, 2024-12-11 The focus of this book is on the legal status of the Jews within the Roman Empire and the changes that it underwent when the empire became Christian Conflicts between Roman and Jewish jurisdiction form an important theme while particular studies deal with questions of conversion the observance of the Sabbath and Festivals Hadrian's decree prohibiting circumcision and with the treatment given to the Samaritans In the field of family law Professor Rabello deals with the issues of the patria potestas family courts marriage and divorce and it is in these areas he holds that a basic understanding can be found of how the early Catholic Church treated Jews and Judaism
