The Roman Empire in Crisis, 248-260 Paul N. Pearson, 2022-05-05 A clear brisk writer Pearson is also quite thorough taking a holistic attitude to the many facets of a confused turbulent period NYMAS Review This book is a narrative history of a dozen years of turmoil that begins with Rome s millennium celebrations of 248 CE and ends with the capture of the emperor Valerian by the Persians in 260 It was a period of almost unremitting disaster for Rome involving a series of civil wars several major invasions by Goths and Persians economic crisis and an empire wide pandemic the plague of Cyprian There was also sustained persecution of the Christians A central theme of the book is that this was a period of moral and spiritual crisis in which the traditional state religion suffered greatly in prestige paving the way for the eventual triumph of Christianity The sensational recent discovery of extensive fragments of the lost Scythica of Dexippus sheds much new light on the Gothic Wars of the period The author has used this new evidence in combination with in depth investigations in the field to develop a revised account of events surrounding the great Battle of Abritus in which the army of the emperor Decius was annihilated by Cniva s Goths The Roman Empire in Crisis 248 260 sheds new light on a period that is pivotal for understanding the transition between Classical civilization and the period known as Late Antiquity

Augustine and the Trinity Lewis Ayres, 2010-11-11 Augustine of Hippo 354 430 strongly influenced western theology but he has often been accused of over emphasizing the unity of God to the detriment of the Trinity In Augustine and the Trinity Lewis Ayres offers a new treatment of this important figure demonstrating how Augustine s writings offer one of the most sophisticated early theologies of the Trinity developed after the Council of Nicaea 325 Building on recent research Ayres argues that Augustine was influenced by a wide variety of earlier Latin Christian traditions which stressed the irreducibility of Father Son and Spirit Augustine combines these traditions with material from non Christian Neoplatonists in a very personal synthesis Ayres also argues that Augustine shaped a powerful account of Christian ascent toward understanding of as well as participation in the divine life one that begins in faith and models itself on Christ s humility

Whitewash and the New Aesthetic of the Protestant Reformation Victoria George,2013-12-31 This book is a reconsideration of the practice of whitewashing church interiors during the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It is the first detailed study of its kind which challenges the view that whitewash was always only a cheap coat of paint Victoria George pulls together several histories of the colour white from the biblical period to the present and ideas about the colour white in philosophy theology art and architecture from antiquity to the present She links them to case studies of the ways in which reformers Huldrych Zwingli and John Calvin thought about colour in a careful analysis of the role of colour thinking in their theological writings The social meanings embodied in the word whitewash as it entered the printed media in the 17th century is explored as part of a chapter on the history of whitewashing itself The long term symbolic and aesthetic implications of the practice of whitewashing are examined in the larger context of material culture in terms of their value as a metaphor for both the Reformed Protestant and the Catholic in opposition to them and for the uses to which whitewash has been put over time George proposes that the practice was not only visually transformative but held importance for religious aesthetics as an agent of change and for an aesthetics of minimalism generally especially evident in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Victoria George received an MFA from the Royal College of Art London an MA from The Architectural Association and a Ph D from Cambridge She has taught religion and the arts at the University of Richmond in Virginia
