A Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 1881 The Natural Genesis Gerald Massey, 1883 A Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 2007-09-01 After enjoying years as a popular journalist and poet, intellectual and freethinker, Gerald Massey turned his vast studies in the field of Egyptology into A Book of the Beginnings, a bold statement that the origin of all civilization lays in ancient Egypt. His assertions, radical at the time, indeed almost a century before the discovery of three million-year-old human remains in Africa, resonate loudly today when molecular biology is making corresponding discoveries alongside the still raging creation versus evolution controversy. In Volume II, Massey intelligently argues an Egyptian origin for Biblical symbology, lexicography, and mythology. Here, he not only asks if the oldest Jewish and Christian axioms were really born on the banks of the Nile, he offers a stalwart and profound Yes.

British author GERALD MASSEY (1828-1907) published works of poetry, spiritualism, Shakespearean criticism, and theology, but his best-known works are in the realm of Egyptology, including The Natural Genesis and Ancient Egypt: The Light of the World.

"The" Academy, 1881 A Preface To, with Extracts From, a Book of the Beginnings Gerald Massey, 1881 Nature, 1881 Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1881 Nature Sir Norman Lockyer, 1881 The natural genesis: or second part of A book of the beginnings Gerald Massey, 1883 Gerald Massey David Shaw, 2009-01-01 "The" Athenaeum, 1881 The Medium and Daybreak, 1881 Decolonising the Future Academy in Africa and Beyond Michaela Pelican, Karim Zafer, Michael Bollig, 2025-02-27 What does it mean to decolonise academia in Africa? Is this important project limited to the humanities? Is it a project for the future? Are there forerunners at African universities today? The contributors to this volume show different trajectories for anthropology as a discipline and for decolonising academia across the continent and beyond. They offer a variety of perspectives, especially regarding collaboration between African and German scholars in the areas of research, teaching, and institutional development. While some are hopeful and take inspiration from earlier experiences of disciplinary and methodological developments in academic decolonisation and international collaborations, others remain critical and call for more radical attempts at decolonisation.

Ancient Egypt in Africa David O'Connor, Andrew Reid, 2003-08-13 The discipline of Egyptology has been criticised for being too insular, with little awareness of the development of archaeologies elsewhere. It has remained theoretically underdeveloped. For example, the role of Ancient Egypt within Africa has rarely been considered jointly by Egyptologists and Africanists. Egypt's own view of itself has been neglected; views of it in the ancient past, in more recent times, and today have remained underexposed. Encounters with

Ancient Egypt is a series of eight books which addresses these issues The books interrelate inform and illuminate one another and will appeal to a wide market including academics students and the general public interested in Archaeology Egyptology Anthropology Architecture Design and History Geographically Egypt is clearly on the African continent yet Ancient Egypt is routinely regarded as a non African cultural form The significance of Ancient Egypt for the rest of Africa is a hotly debated issue with complex ramifications This book considers how Ancient Egypt was dislocated from Africa drawing on a wide range of sources It examines key issues such as the evidence for actual contacts between Egypt and other early African cultures and how influential or not Egypt was on them Some scholars argue that to its north Egypt s influence on Mediterranean civilization was downplayed by western scholarship Further afield on the African continent perceptions of Ancient Egypt were coloured by biblical sources emphasizing the persecution of the Israelites An extensive selection of fresh insights are provided several focusing on cultural interactions between Egypt and Nubia from 1000 BCE to 500 CE developing a nuanced picture of these interactions and describing the limitations of an Egyptological approach to them

The Athenæum ,1881 Africa Beyond the Post-Colonial Alfred B. Zack-Williams,2017-07-05 Drawing together contributions from academics based in Africa and its diaspora this work is unique in considering the situation and status of Africans globally It explores a broad range of contemporary issues from development and culture to linguistics within the socio political framework of Africa in the 21st century “The” Journal of science and annals of biology, astronomy, geology, industrial arts, manufactures, and technology ,1883 The Journal of Science and Annals of Astronomy, Biology, Geology, Industrial Arts, Manufactures and Technology ,1883 Quarterly Journal of Science, and Annals of Mining, Metallurgy, Engineering, Industrial Arts, Manufactures, and Technology ,1883
