Roots A Concise History Of Dalits:

Dalit Theology and Dalit Liberation Peniel Rajkumar, 2016-05-13 In fulfilling the long awaited need for a constructive and critical rethinking of Dalit theology this book offers and explores the synoptic healing stories as a relevant biblical paradigm for Dalit theology in order to help redress the lacuna between Dalit theology and the social practice of the Indian Church Peniel Rajkumar's starting point is that the growing influence of Dalit theology in academic circles is incompatible with the praxis of the Indian Church which continues to be passive in its attitude towards the oppression of the Dalits both within and outside the Church The theological reasons for this lacuna between Dalit theology and the Church's praxis Rajkumar suggests lie in the content of Dalit theology especially the biblical paradigms explored which do not offer adequate scope for engagement in praxis

Memory, Grief, and Agency Sunder John Boopalan, 2017-09-18 This book argues that an active memory of and grief over structural wrongs yields positive agency Such agency generates rites of moral responsibility that serve as antidotes to violent identities and catalyze hospitable social practices By comparing Indian and U S contexts of caste and race Sunder John Boopalan proposes that wrongs today are better understood as rituals of humiliation which are socially conditioned practices of domination affected by discriminatory logics of the past Grief can be redressive by transforming violent identities and hostile in group out group differences when guided by a liberative political theological imagination This volume facilitates interdisciplinary conversations between theorists and theologians of caste and race and those interested in understanding the relation between religion and power

The People and the People of God Hans Ucko, 2002 The Jewish Christian dialogue continues to be a challenge for Christian theology calling for a rethinking of Christian hermeneutics Hans Ucko widens the arena for Jewish Christian dialogue and proposes a constructive interaction between contextual theologies and Jewish Christian dialogue Minjung theology from South Korea and Dalit theology from India have creatively worked with the concepts people peoplehood and People of God The Jewish Christian dialogue has likewise delved into the question of People of God An encounter between these two worlds might be mutually enriching and challenging South Asia's Christians Chandra Mallampalli, 2023 South Asia is home to more than a billion Hindus and half a billion Muslims But the region is also home to substantial Christian communities some dating almost to the earliest days of the faith The stories of South Asia's Christians are vital for understanding the shifting contours of World Christianity precisely because of their history of interaction with members of these other religious traditions In this broad accessible overview of South Asian Christianity Chandra Mallampalli shows how the faith has been shaped by Christians location between Hindus and Muslims Mallampalli begins with a discussion of South India's ancient Thomas Christian tradition which interacted with West Asia's Persian Christians and thrived for centuries alongside their Hindu and Muslim neighbours He then underscores efforts of Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries to understand South Asian societies for purposes of conversion The publication of books and tracts about other religions interreligious debates and aggressive preaching were central to these endeavours but rarely succeeded at yielding converts Instead they played an important role in producing a climate of religious competition which ultimately marginalized Christians in Hindu Muslim and Buddhist majority countries of post colonial South Asia Ironically the greatest response to Christianity came from poor and oppressed Dalit formerly untouchable and tribal communities who were largely indifferent to missionary rhetoric Their mass conversions poetry theology and embrace of Pentecostalism are essential for understanding South Asian Christianity and its place within World Christianity today The Eucharistic Liturgy Jameson K. Pallikunnil, 2017-03-20 The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church exists as a hybrid church by blending the Eastern liturgical elements of the Oriental Orthodox Church and the evangelical ideas of the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century This Church is a bridging church connecting Protestantism and Oriental Orthodoxy The reformation in the Malankara Church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission A major missiological imperative employed by CMS missionaries in India was solely centered on the scripture Against this popular understanding the Mar Thoma Church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission The translation and revision of the Eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the Malankara Church Hence this book explicitly places how the Eucharistic liturgy of the Mar Thoma Church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth In order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the Eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of St James In a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the Eucharistic liturgy of the church This study throws ample light on how the Mar Thoma Church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development The writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works This volume asserts that an emphasis on Eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission The Bible and the Hermeneutics of Liberation Alejandro F. Botta, Pablo R. Andiñach, 2009 Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue Building Solidarity ,2008 Papers presented at the FOIM Biannual Mission Studies Research Seminar held at Srinagar during 8-23 October 2007 Indian Christian Thinkers Anand Amaladass, 2005 Contributed seminar papers Marching with the Marginalised Anthoniraj Thumma ,2012-01-01 About the Book Pope Benedict XVI recently stated The Church must of course ask if she does enough for social justice It is a question of conscience which we must always pose ourselves What must the Church do What can she not do What must she not do This book attempts to explore the relevant answers to those pertinent questions applying the Values of the Kingdom of God and Principles of the Social Doctrine of the Church to our context and exploring from the perspective of the Marginalised This volume belongs to the Series on the People's Theology brought out by the authour articulating the theological reflections emerging from the life struggles and experiential wisdom of the Marginalised The authour presents the insights in the book as suggestions and proposals for making our mission more relevant and effective by responding to the signs of the times and places through focusing on human rights and justice This book invites us to pro actively join the struggles of the Oppressed for liberation and inter actively march with the Marginalised for realizing the Just Peace of the Divine Reign About the Author Anthoniraj Thumma a Catholic Priest from the Diocese of Nellore secured Master degrees in Sociology as well as Systematic Theology and Doctorate in Religious Studies from the University of Madras Besides his regular pastoral ministry he served as the Director of Social Service and Youth Work and worked with the human rights groups and people's movements After his higher studies and research he became a Professor of Systematic Theology and Missiology at St John's Regional Seminary

Hyderabad Presently he is a Guest Professor in Contextual Theology Regional Director of the Commission for Ecumenism and Interreligious Dialogue Executive Secretary of the Andhra Pradesh Federation of Churches APFC and Deputy Secretary of the Andhra Pradesh Bishops Council APBC He is an Executive Member of the Indian Theological Association ITA and Asian Coordinator of the Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians EATWOT He has authored and edited many books in English and Telugu see the last pages of this book for the list His Series of books on the People s Theology is a valuable contribution to Contextual Theology which is much appreciated Die Leipziger Mission und die Dalit-Christen in Pandur, Tamil Nadu Jayabalan Murthy,2022 Murthys Studie ber die Dalits Christen in Pandur in Tamil Nadu konzentriert sich auf die Kastenbilder der Leipziger Missionare und zeigt berzeugend auf welche eminente Bedeutung der Beitrag der Dalits f r den Aufbau einer lutherischen Kirche gehabt hat Seine Analyse der Kastenvorstellungen zur Zeit der Leipziger Missionare st tzt sich nicht nur auf westliche Dokumente wie Missionsberichte und Briefe der Missionare sondern die Bedeutung dieser Masterarbeit besteht darin dass sie die Perspektive der christlichen Dalits selbst beleuchtet indem sie ihre Stimmen anh rt und in den Archiven nach versteckten Niederschriften ihrer Stimmen sucht From Stigma to Assertion Mikael Akpor,Robert Delière,2010 This collection of articles written by distinguished scholars in the field addresses these and other important pre and post independence developments impinging on the notion of Untouchability and the Hindu caste system By putting these developments in a wider temporal perspective covering pre colonial textual material as well as recent debates over the rights and identity of the Untouchables this volume can be seen as a significant contribution to an understanding of why caste continues to play an important role in contemporary India Book Jacket
