Rosalies Battle:

Rosalie's Battles Ginette Anfousse, 1995 9 year old Rosie's adventure begins with a schoolyard snowball fight that is misinterpreted by the teachers as a racist quarrel Vietnamese immigrant Piam Low describes to Rosalie what real war is like while she deals with the disappearance of her new kitten and the sickness of her close friend Pierre Yves Grades 3-6 The Erotics of War in German Romanticism Patricia Anne Simpson, 2006 In The Erotics of War in German Romanticism Patricia Anne Simpson explores the ways early nineteenth century German philosophers poets and artists represent war and erotic desire The author argues that gender is connected to a larger debate about the construction of the self in relation to a community at a time that this definition is under revision She analyzes the culture of war as it shapes the bonds of fraternal familial and eventually national identity Simpson defines the erotics of war as discursive attempts to assert the priority of ethical identity and citizenship over individualized desire The seemingly ancillary problem of female desire emerges not as a marginal issue but as the focal point of a debate about identity Liebe Nach Dem Krieg Frank Michael Schicketanz, 1995

Routledge Library Editions: Romanticism Various,2021-08-05 This set reissues 28 books on Romanticism originally published between 1940 and 2006 Routledge Library Editions Romanticism provides an outstanding collection of scholarship which explores not only

Romantic literature but the Romantic Movement as a whole including art philosophy and science Great Books by German Women in the Age of Emotion, 1770-1820 Margaretmary Daley,2022 Literature written by women in German during the period long known patriarchally as the Age of Goethe was largely lumped in with other unserious or artistically unworthy works under the category Trivialliteratur literally trivial literature Using insights from Gender Studies yet acknowledging the need for a literary canon Great Books by German Women offers a critical interpretation of six canon worthy German novels written by women in the period for which it coins the term Age of Emotion The novels are chosen because they depict women s ordinary yet interesting lives and equally because each displays formal strengths that yield prose particularly able to express emotion The first Sophie von La Roche s Die Geschichte des Fr auleins von Sternheim The History of Lady von Sternheim draws on the tradition of the epistolary novel while also finding new ways to depict empathetic emotions The second Friederike Unger s Julchen Gr unthal brings to the Frauenroman or women s novel the use of irony to portray a heroine s emotions during her coming of age The next novels add lyricism to their prose to capture sensual emotions Sophie Mereau s Bl utenalter der Empfindung The Blossoming of Feeling imagines women s affinity for the philosophical sublime while Caroline Wolzogen depicts female desire in her Agnes von Lilien The fifth novel Die Honigmonathe The Honeymoon by Karoline Fischer explores the agony that extreme emotions cause not only for women but also for men The last novel Caroline Pichler s Frauenw urde The Dignity of Women expands the focus from a young heroine to multiple mature characters while maintaining the centrality of women s talents and emotions Finally this study accords honorable mention to some other women s novels before concluding that the influence of these six works was in no way trivial either in portraying women s lives and emotions or in the history of German literature Rosalie Gascoigne Martin Gascoigne,2019-09-16

Rosalie Gascoigne 1917 1999 was a highly regarded Australian artist whose assemblages of found materials embraced landscape still life minimalism arte povera and installations She was 57 when she had her first exhibition Behind this late coming out lay a long and unusual preparation in looking at nature for its aesthetic qualities collecting found objects making flower arrangements and practising ikebana Her art found an appreciative audience from the start She was a people person and it pleased her that through her exhibiting career of 25 years her works were acquired by people of all ages interests and backgrounds as well as by the major public institutions on both sides of the Tasman Sea American World War II

Orphans Network ,2005-03 Singing Our Way to Victory Regina M. Sweeney,2023-09-05 Winner of the International Book Award from International Association for the Study of Popular Music 2003 The practice of singing and songwriting in France during the Great War provides an intriguing tool for the exploration of the French cultural politics of the epoch Responding to the dearth of cultural studies of the First World War Regina Sweeney s unique cross disciplinary study illuminates many of the hitherto unexplored corners of an era that many historians consider to exhibit a break with recognizable trends In early twentieth century Europe singing was considered a part of education integral to the formation of good citizens Singing was especially important to the French for whom it was historically associated with authenticity of feeling and purity of character and thereby with the very roots of French democracy it was particularly associated with the image of France as a victorious nation But as Sweeney shows different performances of the same patriotic song could carry vastly different meanings By focusing on singing Sweeney is able to provide a more nuanced reading of French Great War cultures than ever before and to show that cultures previously held to be exclusive those of the home front and the Western front for example existed in dialectical tension and were themselves far from homogenous
