Salvador Witness The Life And Calling Of Jean Donovan:

Salvador Witness Ana Carrigan, 1984 Salvador Witness recounts a remarkable journey from the affluent suburbs of Connecticut to the jungles and refugee camps of El Salvador. It is a tale for our time, a narrative of emotional and spiritual growth that led Jean Donovan at age twenty-five to decide to dedicate her life to the poor. Her murder at the hands of government troops in El Salvador shocked the world. This book tells the story behind that event but also the story of a young American woman, her growth, her bravery, and her humanity, and the price she was willing to pay for them. Book jacket Remembering Oscar Romero and the Martyrs of El Salvador John Thiede, 2017-05-25 With the Beatification of Monsignor Oscar Romero, our current Pope Francis has asked theologians to consider how we might allow for an expanded definition for martyrdom in the 21st century. Remembering Oscar Romero and the Martyrs of El Salvador responds to that challenge. How do we name Oscar Romero, Rutilio Grande, the U.S. churchwomen, and the Jesuits and two laywomen killed at the UCA as martyrs? Is it a new category with a new definition? Or is it simply an amplification of what we have long considered Christian witness? While there is a long history of martyrdom in Latin America, this book elaborates on four case studies for martyrdom, focusing on the reality in El Salvador: Rutilio Grande, S.J., killed in 1977; Archbishop Oscar Romero, killed in 1980; the U.S. churchwomen killed in 1980; and the six members of the UCA Jesuit community and their two female collaborators killed in 1989. Insights from the work of Jon Sobrino illuminate these case studies. First, his Christological insights from Jesus the Liberator and Christ the Liberator are used to analyze the reality of martyrdom, particularly in reference to the terms martyr, crucified people, and martyred people. Second, his more recent articles challenge a strict interpretation of the traditional definition of martyrdom, especially focusing on his terms Jesuanic martyr, a martyr for justice, and even a more polemic suggestion of an anonymous Christian martyr. Finally, the book concludes by combining Sobrino's insights and the reality of martyrdom today, updated with the recent scholarship in Romero's beatification process, which attempts to show Romero as a martyr. In the end, the book hopes to offer some suggestions for an expanded definition of martyrdom in the 21st century. By responding to the call of Pope Francis for an expanded definition, the reality of martyrdom in Latin America might be better understood and applied to the universal church.

Martyrs of Hope Brett, Donna Whitson, Brett, Edward T., 2018-10-18 Here is the riveting and troubling story of seven U.S. martyrs in Central America who laid down their lives for their neighbors: Father Stanley Rother, Brother James Miller, Sisters Maura Clarke, Ita Ford, Dorothy Kazel, and Carla Piette, and lay missionary Jean Donovan.

The Capacity to be Displaced: Resilience, Mission, and Inner Strength Clemens Sedmak, 2017-04-03 The experience of displacement is shared by people who work internationally. The capacity to be displaced is a necessary strength and skill for people working across cultures, particularly for missionaries. In order to deal with the stressful nature of displacement, people need to be resilient; resilience makes people flourish in adverse circumstances. This volume presents a specific type of resilience, namely resilience nourished by inner sources. Cultivating inner resilience draws on all the facets of a person's interior life: thoughts and memories, hopes and desires, beliefs and convictions, concerns and emotions. The notion of inner strength and resilience from within is developed using many examples from missionaries and development workers as well as case studies from all over the world.

Exiting Violence Debora Tonelli, Gerard Michael J. Mannion, 2024-06-04 In the 20th and 21st centuries where violence has scarred countless lives, the interplay between religion, politics and conflict remains a complex web. Exiting Violence looks to untangle some of these knots, showing not only how faith can ignite bloodshed but also how it can inspire peace and build bridges. Resulting from an international collaboration between the Fondazione Bruno Kessler, RESET Dialogues Among Civilizations and the Berkley Center for Religion, Peace and World Affairs, this collection assesses the state of scholarship and explores the differing ways in which religion can contribute to societies and communities exiting situations of violence and hatred. From Biblical hermeneutics to Buddhism, from secularism to legal systems, Exiting Violence offers a nuanced and thought-provoking exploration of the multifaceted role religion plays in the human struggle for peace and justice.

Constructing Culture and Power in Latin America Daniel H. Levine, 1993 A notable collection of complementary essays largely culled from the pages of Comparative Studies in Society and History examine the ways in which power exerted by capital markets, peasants, women, elites and States and culture expressed in official policy, institutions and communal life.

El Salvador: Blood on All Our Hands George Thurlow, 2024-03-01 On April 29, 1981, American journalist George Thurlow was shot by members of the El Salvador Treasury Police on a jungle road in San Salvador. His 29-year-old driver, Gilberto Moran, was killed, and Associated Press photographer Joaquin Zuniga was seriously injured in the shooting. Thurlow left El Salvador two days later to receive medical treatment in the U.S. In 2000, he began a more than two-decade search to find Gilberto Moran's grave and some form of personal redemption. El Salvador: Blood on All Our Hands details that search and introduces us to those who fought in the civil war, U.S. aid workers helping to rebuild the tiny country as well as every day Salvadorans who suffered through a war that killed 70,000 of their fellow citizens. Many Salvadorans have decided it is time to move on from focusing on the war as their country enters a new era. The U.S. officials who supplied weapons and encouragement to the Salvadoran government, its security forces and the murderous death squads have never been held accountable. In El Salvador, a Truth Commission has identified those most responsible for the assassinations and murder of priests, journalists and opposition leaders. This book is intended to document a moment in Salvadoran history when the United States government was responsible for a cruel carnage and to illustrate how American citizens are attempting to repair the damage.

Mystics, Visionaries, and Prophets Shawn Madigan, 1997-12-01 Winner of Catholic Press Association Book of the Year Award. Spirituality Unique in its range and depth, this lavish anthology for the first time captures in a single volume the most notable spiritual writings of leading women from all periods of Christian history. Reagan's Gun-Toting Nuns Theresa Keeley, 2020-09-15 In Reagan's Gun Toting Nuns Theresa Keeley analyzes the role of intra Catholic conflict within the framework of U S foreign policy formulation and execution during the Reagan administration She challenges the preponderance of scholarship on the administration that stresses the influence of evangelical Protestants on foreign policy toward Latin America Especially in the case of U S engagement in El Salvador and Nicaragua Keeley argues the bitter debate between U S and Central American Catholics over the direction of the Catholic Church shaped President Reagan's foreign policy The flash point for these intra Catholic disputes was the December 1980 political murder of four American Catholic missionaries in El Salvador Liberal Catholics described nuns and priests in Central America who worked to combat structural inequality as human rights advocates living out the Gospel's spirit Conservative Catholics saw them as agents of class conflict who furthered the so called Gospel according to Karl Marx The debate was an old one among Catholics but as Reagan's Gun Toting Nuns contends it intensified as conservative anticommunist Catholics played instrumental roles in crafting U S policy to fund the Salvadoran government and the Nicaraguan Contras Reagan's Gun Toting Nuns describes the religious actors as human rights advocates and against prevailing understandings of the fundamentally secular activism related to human rights highlights religion inspired activism during the Cold War In charting the rightward development of American Catholicism Keeley provides a new chapter in the history of U S diplomacy and shows how domestic issues such as contraception and abortion joined with foreign policy matters to shift Catholic laity toward Republican principles at home and abroad

The Salvador Option Russell Crandall, 2016-05-23 El Salvador's civil war between the Salvadoran government and Marxist guerrillas erupted into full force in early 1981 and endured for eleven bloody years Unwilling to tolerate an advance of Soviet and Cuban backed communism in its geopolitical backyard the US provided over six billion dollars in military and economic aid to the Salvadoran government El Salvador was a deeply controversial issue in American society and divided Congress and the public into left and right Relying on thousands of archival documents as well as interviews with participants on both sides of the war The Salvador Option offers a thorough and fair minded interpretation of the available evidence If success is defined narrowly there is little question that the Salvador Option achieved its Cold War strategic objectives of checking communism. Much more difficult however is to determine what human price this success entailed. A toll suffered almost entirely by Salvadorans in this brutal civil war.
