Moore,2003 Structured around a series of lectures presented at the Jung Institute of Chicago in a program entitled Jungian Psychology and Human Spirituality Liberation from Tribalism in Religious Life this book length essay attacks the related problems of human evil spiritual narcissism secularism and ritual and grandiosity Robert Moore dares to insist that we stop ignoring these issues and provides clear sighted guidance for where to start and what to expect Along the way he pulls together many important threads from recent findings in theology spirituality and psychology and brings us to a point where we can conceive of embarking on a corrective course Traditional doctrinal and historical interpretation both rely heavily on rational analysis But from the disciples at Emmaus to the beginnings of the present century it has been the impact of scripture upon the human heart that has changed human lives In recent decades this impact has been strengthened by advances in linguistic and literary theory by such disparate influences as feminism structuralism Jungianism deconstructionism the analysis of archaic imagery and myth the recovery of Gnostic texts and finally an openness to pluralism whether ethnic geographic religious or interpretive All of these factors are treated here with a brevity and comprehensiveness which convincingly show that the reader of scripture has a creative and not merely passive role If you would understand the deepest roots of terrorism greed and religious fanaticism read Facing the Dragon But be forewarned you may find some offshoots in your own garden June Singer Jungian analyst author of Boundaries of the Soul Robert Moore Phd was an internationally recognized psychotherapist and consultant in private practice in Chicago He was considered one of the leading therapists specializing in psychotherapy with men because of his discovery of the Archetypal Dynamics of the Masculine Self King Warrior Magician Lover He served as Distinguished Service Professor of Psychology Psychoanalysis and Spirituality at the Graduate Center of the Chicago Theological Seminary and has served as a Training Analyst at the C G Jung Institute of Chicago He is Co founder of the Chicago Center for Integrative Psychotherapy ABBA KEDDUS 'RASTAFARI AND THE RETURN OF OUR SACRED ORIGINS' 2015 Tyson Brown,2011-11-15 This book is a new approach to the Rastafari movement It connects the ancient history of Nile River Valley civilizations the Ethiopian Tewahedo Church and its monastic heritage to the global phenomenon of Rastafari At the heart of the story is the legend of the Abba Keddus the sacred elder who arrives to transform the world and return us to our primordial origins Dancing Between Two Worlds Fred Gustafson,1997 In this thought provoking and sensitive book a noted Jungian scholar explores the deepest elements in the American psyche that need healing to bring forth the best in both of the worlds we walk in the highly differentiated and technologically developed Western civilization and the indigenous native soul that is the essence of each human being The author demonstrates that this soul is forcefully represented in America in the experience of the Native American peoples and their relationship to the land and to the ancient indigenous one at the heart of our human rights The author explores not only the best of Native American spiritual thought to rediscover that soul but also the terrible psychic damage done to later settlers by five hundred years of violence against the original peoples He sketches positive directions that will create a partnership between the two worlds of our past and bring them together in a dance that will encourage a more redemptive spiritual order God Beyond Gender Gail Ramshaw,1995 The debate about God language has two opposing extremes One side maintains that biblical language and masculine pronouns must be retained The other argues that female imagery for God is preferable Now Gail Ramshaw presents a third position urging the inclusion of many images for God the correction of others and the total avoidance of any pronouns Communication and Lonergan Thomas J. Farrell,Paul A. Soukup,1993 Essays about communication and the thought of Canadian Jesuit philosopher and theologian
