A new generation of artists and writers had begun. Soon publishers were producing translations of the new comics into other languages including English and comics creators everywhere were inspired to innovation. This is a reference work arranged by artist or writer to European comics from the last quarter of the twentieth century that have been translated from any European language into English. It contains a variety of material from the innocent imperialism of Herge's Tintin to the sadistic murder for hire in Bernet's Torpedo. Albums by a single creator or artist and writer team of European origin are the focus. Comics in periodicals and anthologies with multiple contributors are excluded.
