Louis Farrakhan Made In America:

Louis Farrakhan A. Marshall, 1996 This biography unfolds Louis Farrakhan's odyssey from the streets of Roxbury to becoming America's most outspoken black leader. It traces his controversial relationship with Malcolm X and examines how Farrakhan rebuilt the Nation of Islam and established himself as the spokesperson for millions of disgruntled African Americans. It details Malcolm X's daughter's alleged plot to have Farrakhan assassinated and the unique way it united opposing factions in the black community. This biography describes Farrakhan's often volatile relationship with black leaders including Jesse Jackson, Khalid Muhammad, and Ben Chavis. It culminates with the historic Million Man March and Farrakhan's subsequent World Friendship Tour. From Amazon.com A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women Bayyinah S. Jeffries, 2014-04-04 A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women African American Muslim Women in the Movement for Black Self-Determination 1950-1975 challenges traditional notions and interpretations of African American particularly women who joined the Original Nation of Islam during the Civil Rights Black Power era. This book is the first major investigation of the subject that engages a wide scope of women from The Nation and utilizes a wealth of primary documents and personal interviews to reveal the importance of women in this community. Jeffries reveals that women were respected in the movement and maintained a very clear and often sought-after voice in the advancement of the Original Nation of Islam. A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women replaces the typical portrait of the subservient and irrelevant African American Muslim woman with a far more accurate picture of their integral leadership and substantial contributions to the rise of Islam and black consciousness in the self-determination movement in the United States and beyond during the Civil Rights Black Power era. Urban Apologetics Eric Mason, 2021-04-06 Urban Apologetics examines the legitimate issues that Black communities have with Western Christianity and shows how the gospel of Jesus Christ rather than popular socioreligious alternatives restores our identity. African Americans have long confronted the challenge of dignity destruction caused by white supremacy. While many have found meaning and restoration of dignity in the black church, others have found it in ethnocentric socioreligious groups and philosophies. These ideologies have grown and developed deep traction in the black community and beyond. Revisionist history, conspiracy theories, and misinformation about Jesus and Christianity are the order of the day. Many young African Americans are disinterested in Christianity, and others are leaving the church in search of what these false religious ideas appear to offer: a spirituality more indigenous to their history and ethnicity. Edited by Dr. Eric Mason and featuring a top-notch lineup of contributors, Urban Apologetics is the first book focused entirely on cults, religious groups, and ethnocentric ideologies prevalent in the black community. The book is divided into three main parts: Discussions on the unique context for urban apologetics so that you can better understand the cultural arguments against Christianity among the Black community; Detailed information on cults, religious groups, and ethnic identity groups that many urban evangelists encounter such as the Nation of Islam, Kemetic spirituality, African mysticism, Hebrew Israelites, Black nationalism.

and atheism Specific tools for urban apologetics and community outreach Ultimately Urban Apologetics applies the gospel to black identity to show that Jesus is the only one who can restore it This is an essential resource to equip those doing the work of ministry and apology in urban communities with the best available information Bibliography of African American Leadership Cedric Johnson, Ronald W.
