France Richard Bonney,2024-10-28 This selection of articles is organized around three broad themes the nature of the governing system in France Absolutism the political crisis of the mid 17th century the Fronde and the development of royal finance The author first considers the growth of the French state in its ideological and institutional aspects then the opposition such developments provoked much centred on the figure of Cardinal Mazarin In the last section particular attention is given to fiscal history including a comparison of mid 18th century France with the other states of Europe Professor Bonney would argue that the fiscal imperative the increased requirements posed by the costs of war and the long term consequences of fiscal growth may be seen as one of the decisive factors in the development of the modern state

Poussin Thought to have been painted in 1657 the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries Several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum A painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12 000 euros was acquired two decades later by the Mus e des Beaux Arts de Lyon for 17 million euros What does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued How is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece that a decorative object could become a national treasure This is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold the ordinary into the extraordinary the profane into the sacred Focusing on this extraordinary case Bernard Lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece Like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly prized painting commanding a record breaking price He thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied this object and the value we attach to it is also the product of a complex array of social processes with its distinctive institutions and experts that lies behind it And through the history of this painting Lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world For the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies in economics and politics as much as art and religion a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority By following the trail of a single work of art Lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art

Barbieri, Jr.,2012-10-01 This book rewrites the history of Christian peace ethics Christian reflection on reducing violence or overcoming war has roots in ancient Roman philosophy and eventually grew to influence modern international law This historical overview begins with Cicero the source of Christian authors like Augustine and Thomas Aquinas It is highly debatable whether Augustine had a systematic interest in just war or whether his writings were used to develop a systematic just war teaching only by the later tradition May Christians justifiably use force to overcome disorder and achieve peace The book traces the classical debate from Thomas Aquinas to early modern age thinkers like Vitoria Suarez Martin Luther Hugo Grotius and Immanuel Kant It highlights the diversity of the approaches of theologians philosophers and lawyers Modern cosmopolitanism and international law thinking it shows are rooted in the Spanish Scholastics where Grotius and Kant each found the inspiration to inaugurate a modern peace ethic In the 20th century the tradition has taken aim not only at reducing violence and overcoming war but at developing a constructive ethic of peace building as is reflected in Pope John Paul II s teaching
