and they shone almost blindingly in the sunlight Across the hill half way up ran a high hedge that flung its black shadow finely across the molten glow of the sward The stack was being built just above the hedge It was of great size massive but so silvery and delicately bright in tone that it seemed not to have weight It rose dishevelled and radiant among the steady golden green glare of the field A little farther back was another finished stack The empty wagon was just passing through the gap in the hedge From the far off corner of the bottom field where the sward was still striped grey with winrows the loaded wagon launched forward to climb the hill to the stack The white dots of the hay makers showed distinctly among the hay
