Love Child Revised:

Parenting a Grieving Child (Revised) Mary DeTurris Poust, 2015-08-01 Whether it's a fish, a friend, or a family member, nearly every child will experience a loss in their early years, and the experience and feelings of a sad event can be confusing and scary. And when grief intrudes, children look to their parents and the adults in their lives to fix this pain, take away what they don't understand, and show them how to handle their emotions. Parenting a Grieving Child provides practical and approachable resources for Catholic parents and other adult helpers who work with children to use the power and traditions of the Catholic faith to accompany children as they work through their grief in a healthy way. As author Mary DeTurris Poust points out, too often children are left out of the grieving process, and their specific grief issues are not addressed or are addressed in harmful ways. Children's grief is real and powerful, and it needs to be acknowledged and validated by the adults who are accompanying them through the grieving process. Drawing from the traditions and practices of the Catholic faith, Parenting a Grieving Child provides the steps parents can take to help their child through one of life's most difficult experiences.

Between Parent and Child: Revised and Updated Dr. Haim G. Ginott, 2003-07-22 Strengthen your relationship with your children with this revised edition of the book by renowned psychologist Dr. Haim Ginott, that has helped millions of parents around the world. In this revised edition, Dr. Alice Ginott, clinical psychologist and wife of the late Haim Ginott, and family relationship specialist Dr. H.
