A persona che mai tornasse al mondo,
Questa fiamma staria senza piu scosse.
Ma perciocche giammai di questo fondo
Non torno vivo alcun, s'i'odo il vero,
Senza tema d'infamia ti rispondo.

Let us go then, you and I,
When the evening is spread out against the sky
Like a patient etherized upon a table;
Let us go, through certain half-deserted streets,
The muttering retreats
Of restless nights in one-night cheap hotels
And sawdust restaurants with oyster-shells:
Streets that follow like a tedious argument
Of insidious intent
To lead you to an overwhelming question ...
Oh, do not ask, "What is it?"
Let us go and make our visit.

In the room the women come and go
Talking of Michelangelo.

The yellow fog that rubs its back upon the window-panes,

Writing Performance Ronald J. Pelias, 1999 Ronald J Pelias is concerned with writing about performance from the everyday performative routines to the texts on stage He seeks to write performatively to offer poetic or aesthetic renderings of performance events in order to capture some sense of their nature In his quest for the spirit of theatrical performances in a collection of essays Pelias of course asks more of the written word than the word can deliver Yet the attempt is both desirable and necessary To discuss performance without some accounting for its essence as art he asserts is at best misleading at worst fraud Pelias divides his efforts to present performance events into three general categories Performing Every Day On Writing and Performing and Being a Witness As the title implies Performing Every Day focuses on performances ranging from the daily business of enacting roles to the telling of tales that make life meaningful It incorporates essays about the ongoing process of presenting oneself in everyday life the gender script that insists that men enact manly performances the classroom performances of teachers and students stories of gender class and race that mark identity and a performance installation entitled A Day s Talk which is a record of talk produced in a day s time accompanied by reflections about and responses to that talk On Writing and Performing examines the written script and performance practices It contains a description of a struggle between a writer and a performer as they protect their own interests an intimate look at an apprehensive performer a short play entitled The Audition which deals with what it means to be an actor a chronicle of performance process from the perspective of an actor and a brief essay on the nature of performance Being a Witness examines performance from the perspective of the audience and the director It includes essays on the experience of

A Bell Curve and Other Poems David J. Murray, 2013-10-21 In A Bell Curve and Other Poems poet David J Murray divides 118 short poems into seven separate sections each section holds a common theme but includes a different number of poems from the other sections The poems of this collection offer photographs of moments in his mental life while the collection as a whole uses the bell curve concept to allow him to stress the unified nature of this poetry collection The first section only three poems long is about children The second section nine poems long is about the authors professional interests in psychology and philosophy The third including seventeen poems is about the arts especially literature The fourth section the middle includes fifty eight poems addressed to the person who is the heroine of Murray s previous book An Artists Model and Other Poems 2012 Sixteen poems comprise the fifth section on women Murray has met in the past and whose influence on him led him to write about those encounters The sixth section contains twelve poems about the changing views of Lake Ontario as he sees it every day The final section includes just three memorial poems two of which concern his deceased wifes gravesite in Kingstons Cataraqui Cemetery These numbers 3 9 17

58 16 12 3 resemble in outline a sharply peaked bell curve illustrating roughly how much time Murray spends thinking about each topic at the present stage of his poetic experience This form offers exploration and a snapshot of his current thoughts on a wide range of subjects      Wonderful Wasteland and other natural disasters Elidio La Torre Lagares, 2019-09-30 When Hurricane Mar a unleashed its devastation onto Puerto Rico thousands of lives were lost to the storm in what was the island s worst natural disaster on record With so much of the recovery still underway and the scars still fresh its citizens continue to contend with the reality that life on the island has fundamentally changed In his first collection of poems written in English La Torre Lagares journeys through his memory in an effort to recompose his shattered land Together these poems form a poignant personal account of a man facing the tragic destinies of his family and his country in the aftermath of a natural disaster For example the deaths of the mother and the father are resignified as the death of the poet s personal relationship which at the same time evokes the rupture between individuals and their sense of place Drawing from both American and Latin American poetry as well as global influences to articulate a language of loss and devastation in search of a new identity this collection illuminates a chaotic and confusing landscape that is not only physical but also cultural social and political Taken together this work serves as a stirring reminder of the dislocation and fractured attachment that speaks to many Americans including transnationals and immigrants Ultimately it speaks to coping with physical loss and emotional pain in the face of human adversity      *T. the urban animals of Marshall Saunders and Dennis Lee to the lyrical observations of bird enthusiasts John James Audubon Thomas McIlwraith and Don McKay animals have occupied a key place in Canadian literature focusing central aspects of our environmental consciousness and cultural symbolism Other Selves explores how and what the animals in this country have meant through all genres and periods of Canadian writing focusing sometimes on individual texts and at other times on broader issues Tackling more than a century of writing from 19th century narrative of women travellers to the natural conversion of Grey Owl to the award winning novels of Farley Mowat Marian Engel Timothy Findley Barbara Gowdy and Yann Martel these essays engage the reader in this widely acknowledged but inadequately explored aspect of Canadian literature
